77 Killed as Plane Crashes on Hill in Guam Jungle Area

Most Victims American Personnel and Families

Agana, Guam — (AP) — At least 77 persons, most of them American military personnel and their wives and children homeward bound, died today in the thundering explosion and crash of a World Airways transport plane on a jungle-matted hill of this western Pacific island.

The DC-6B, on a contract flight for the US Military Air Transport Service, crashed three minutes after takeoff from a refueling stop.

Seventeen persons were alive when rescuers got to the twisted shell of the plane but one of them died a few hours later.

The wings were ripped off the giant plane as it plowed a 100-yard path through dense growth on the side of a 640-foot hill called Mt. Barrigada.

Theories Conflict

There were conflicting theories on what occurred. Some military sources said an explosion blew apart one of the four engines just before the crash. Others said the explosion came on the impact.

Military and civilian rescue units slashed their way up the dense hillside greenery with machetes and bolo knives.

The survivors were rushed to the US Naval Air Station hospital in Agana. Three were reported in critical condition and 14 seriously hurt.

The plane left Clark Air Force Base north of Manila at 11:46 p. m. Sunday, Manila time, with an undisclosed number of passengers. It landed on Guam about 4 a.m. Monday, Guam time, refueled and took off at 6:02 a.m. It crashed three minutes later

Those who boarded at Clark Air Force Base were mainly Ameri-

UAW Votes to Return to Jobs at Case

Union Claims It Failed to Gain Any Major Issues

Racine — (AP) — Members of Local 180 of the United Auto Workers, on strike at the J.I. Case Co. for six months, voted Sunday to return to work under terms of the firm's latest offer, which, the union said, did not grant a single major demand.

Anthony Valeo, Local 180 president, said "not any of the major issues involved in the strike were gained by the union." The strike, which began March 9, idled 1,900 workers at three of the farm implement company's plants here, including the home Clausen Works.

However, Herschel Davis, an aide from the union's international office, said the two-year contract provides for a wage increase averaging 12 cents hourly. The increases range from 4 to 17 cents hourly. Prior to the start of the sometimes bitter strike wages ranged from $2.00 to $3.17 an hour. Davis noted that wages were not a major issues.

Some Recalled

Davis said some workers would be recalled today, the rest within two weeks.

After a three-hour meeting in the Memorial Hall, the membership voted 816 to 360 to accept the company's officer which did include improvements in pensions and insurance, seniority, the language of transfer and promotion articles, discipline procedures and holiday pay.

Under terms of the agreement, the company will contribute a larger, but unspecified amount to the hospital and health insurance program. Holiday pay was boosted from double to triple time.

The union originally made 18 demands. Included were a union shop and checkoff of dues. Davis said these last two demands were withdrawn.

In summing up the union's position on the new contract, Valeo said "it will help the man in the shop on a day-to-day basis." The contract becomes effective when signed, and provides for wage reopening in a year.

African, Asian Nations Back Hammarskjold

16 Countries Give Him Support Despite Soviet Opposition

United Nations, N.Y., — (AP) — The Soviet Union called on the U.N. General Assembly today to approve a resolution holding Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold responsible for the overthrow of the Congolese Government headed by Patrice Lumumba.

United Nations, N. Y. — (AP) — Sixteen African and Asian countries urged the General Assembly today to back Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold's mission in the Congo.

They pushed their resolution in the face of the Soviet Unions's campaign against Hammarskjold and its expressed determination to send the Congo help outside U. N. channels whenever it pleased.

The 82-nation Assembly, in emergency session on the Congo since Saturday, scheduled morning, afternoon and evening meetings today.

There were prospects it might adopt the resolution tonight, within hours after the arrival of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for the regular session opening Tuesday.

Assembly President Victor Andres Belaund of Peru was ready to call another meeting Tuesday morning if necessary to finish with the issue in time to open the regular session on schedule at 3 p. m.

Raps Hammarskjold

Besides Khrushchev, Presidents Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U. A. R., Tito of Yugoslavia and Sukarno of Indonesia, Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba and seven satellite and Soviet republic leaders will attend the regular session. President Eisenhower will speak Thursday.

Proposes 'Serious' Talks With Ike on Disarmament; Booed by Anti-Communists

New York—(AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev arrived here today amid boos of anti-communist demonstrators and called at once for "serious negotiations" with President Eisenhower on disarmament.

Khrushchev encountered an official chill—no top United States or other western dignitaries were on hand—as he stepped from the Soviet liner Baltika for the United Nations General Assembly session. Pelting rain and lowering skies darkened the scene.

About 150 officials of communist nations were at the dilapidated East river pier where the Baltika docked to welcome the Soviet leader.

Their ovation could not drown out the boos and cries of "murderer, murderer!" from demonstrators held back by police at some distance from the pier.

Khrushchev smiled and waved from the deck as the ship docked but appeared impatient at the time it took to moor and set up the gangplank.

Reads Statement

Scarcely was he ashore than he whipped out a 3½ page, single-spaced typewritten statement and began to read.

The Soviet said he did not understand Eisenhower's recently announced intention to address the United Nations on Thursday.

"If this does not mean a fancy speech but really constructive participation in the work of the assembly, we would welcome such a decision," Khrushchev said.

"The United States have perhaps reappraised their attitude

Congo's Strongman Tells Of Overpowering Assassin

Col. Joseph Mobutu Waits for Congolese Officer to Enter Room

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

Leopoldville, the Congo — (AP) — Col. Joseph Mobutu, the Congo's reigning strongman, told today how he foiled an assassination plot, personally overcoming the gunman sent to kill him.

Mobutu charged army supporters of Patrice Lumumba with plotting the assassination attempt Sunday at about the same time the deposed premier came out of hiding.

Mobutu claimed he had been tipped off and was ready for the assassin, identified as Congolese army Maj. Vital Bakasa.

On Guard

Mobutu told U.N. security officers that he was on guard when Bakasa entered his office with one hand in his pocket. Mobutu pounced on the major and managed to wrest from him a loaded and cocked revolver.

U.N. Moroccan soldiers doing guard duty outside Mobutu's office in Camp Leopold II rushed into the room on hearing the commotion and found the two men grappling on the floor.

Bakasa was overpowered and handed over to the Congolese army.

Full Confession

Mobutu, who seized control of the government in a bloodless coup last Wednesday, said Bakasa had made a full confession.

Mobutu said "the army will

Propaganda Taboo for Reds On Networks

New York — (AP) — The three major television networks indicate they will go along with the state department and not permit Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to use the networks for propaganda during his stay here.

However, the Mutual Broadcasting System says it has invited the Russian chief, Cuba's Fidel Castro and nine other heads of state to appear on its radio network.

The major TV networks—the National Broadcasting Co., the American Broadcasting Co. and the Columbia Broadcasting System—said yesterday they would cover Khrushchev's actions and speeches as head of the Soviet Union's U.N. delegation only Mutual said it had received "favorable replies" from Indian Prime Minister Nehru and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia to appear on a radio news panel program along with other heads of state.

Season's First Fog Hits London Area

London — (AP) — The season's first fog hit London today. It was a comparatively light one, but two big Boeing 707 airliners, one from San Francisco and the other from New York, had to be diverted to Paris.

Another 707 jet, from Montreal, circled London airport for more than an hour waiting for the fog to clear and was finally diverted to Gatwick airport, 33 miles south of London.

Floods, Slides Snap Italian Rail Lines

Rome — (AP) — Railway traffic up and down the tourist crowded Italian Peninsula was almost at a standstill today as nearly every main line was flooded or blocked by landslides.

At least 25 were known dead in villages on the southern slopes of the Alps where scores of communities were isolated by flood waters up to ten feet deep.

Matter of Time

Driver Tells How He Left Submerged Car

Malden, Mass. — (AP) — "I simply waited while the water poured inside the car."

Twenty-eight-year-old Joseph Sullivan, an automobile salesman, was telling how he saved his life Sunday by staying calm in an emergency.

An oncoming car forced Sullivan to swerve off Fellsway East highway at 5.20 a.m. He lost control and his car plunged down an embankment and into Fellsmere pond, 20 feet deep.

Lifeguard training had taught Sullivan he couldn't open doors or windows until water pressure inside the car was equal to that outside. So for four minutes he played it cool.

"When I struck bottom I immediately turned off the ignition. I didn't want to take a chance on a short circuit. I left my lights on, though. I thought there was a chance some motorist might spot them.

Waited for Water

"After that, I simply waited while the water poured inside the car. Two vent windows were open.

"The water came in quickly. I'm thankful I had a small compact car that was easy to fill up. If I had one of those big jobs I don't believe I'd have had the nerve to hold on that extra minute or two.

"When the water got up to my chest — all cold and clammy — I decided it was time for me to leave.

"I tried to open the door. I pushed and shoved but it wouldn't open. It must have been banged up somehow.

"So I tried the windows. I'm 6 foot 3 inches tall and I didn't think there would be room for me to get through.

"I took a deep, deep breath and turned the handle to open the window. It rolled down easily. The water poured in on me but I was able to fight my way out.

"A moment or two later, I was at the surface breathing in that clean fresh air I thought for awhile I'd never smell again. After that it was a simple matter of swimming ashore."

Put Blame on Ike For Steel Jobless

Kennedy Seeks to Woo Labor Vote While Nixon Tours Farm Belt, Predicts Freedom Without War

Washington —(AP)— Sen. John F. Kennedy blamed the Eisenhower Administration today for the unemployment of "more than 100,000 steelworkers" and described the national economy as "wallowing in the doldrums."

The Democratic candidate's remarks came in a speech prepared for the convention of the United Steelworkers Union in Atlantic City, N.J.

While the labor vote attracted Kennedy, the Midwest and its farmers caught the attention of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate.

Nixon starts an extensive tour toward the Midwest today. By Friday, the trip will take him to Sioux Falls, S.D., where he plans a major speech on farm problems.

New Weapons

Kennedy proposed handing the new president an arsenal of new weapons for dealing with national emergency labor disputes. As an example, Kennedy cited last year's marathon steel strike.

The Democratic candidate also rejected a suggestion that unemployment in the steel industry be reduced by cutting the work week to 32 hours. David J. McDonald, president of the Steelworkers, had made the suggestion.

But Kennedy said the Communist challenge confronting the United States rules out any thought of the proposal.

Nixon said today freedom must be restored in the communist satellite world — and that this can be done without war.

The Republican presidential candidate addressed American Nationalities for Nixon-Lodge, a group of citizens with ties to foreign countries, including some now behind the iron curtain.

The speech opened the second week of Nixon's active campaign and came as Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and satellite heads of state arrived in New York for a United Nations meeting.

Nixon said the communist leaders could be expected to hurl charges against the United States and urge a propaganda campaign that the Soviet bloc is on the side of peace and progress.

To applause from his audience, some of them wearing costumes native to Poland and Lithuania, Nixon said the United States must never make deals simply to preserve its own prosperity and strength.

At Sioux Falls Friday, Nixon will appear at the National Plowing contest. He plans to talk about farm parity and price supports in the second of two major farm speeches.

Reducing Surplus

In his first last week, he outlined his ideas for reducing the huge surplus crops in government hands.

Meanwhile, Henry Cabot Lodge, the Republican candidate for vice president, said, "I think our prestige is higher than that of any other country."

In a television interview yesterday, Lolge said the United States did not lose a single important test vote during his 7½ years as ambassador to the United Nations.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, the Democratic candidate for vice president, was greeted yesterday at a barbecue in a ranch at Nogal, N.M.

Johnson described Kennedy as a conservative without being reactionary. Naming several leading Democratic presidents Johnson said Kennedy represents "all the best we have known" among them.

Today's Chuckle

Those economic terms aren't so hard to understand. A "readjustment" is when your neighbor loses his job. A "recession" is when you lose your job. A "depression" is when your wife loses her job. (Copr. 1960)

Assault Started On Vientiane By Gen. Phoumi

Cabinet Meeting Cancelled in Face Of New Threat

Vientiane, Laos —(AP)— The rebel regime of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan announced early today its "liberating forces" were launching an assault on Vientiane, administrative capital of neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma.

Phouma cancelled an emergency cabinet meeting with King Savang Vathana at the royal capital of Luang Prabang in the face of the new threat.

The rebel radio at Savannakhet called on the defenders of Vientiane to lay down their arms and also warned residents of the city to seek shelter.

Unconfirmed Report

An unconfirmed report said several battalions of Phoumi's forces are moving up the Mekong river toward Vientiane.

The latest development followed closely a 30-minute machine-gun and mortar barrage yesterday against the city. The firing came from Thailand, across the Mekong river from Vientiane.

Premier Phouma said he would protest to Thailand, and if that did no good he might appeal to the U.N. security council.

Westerners here said the attacking force appeared part of a campaign to harass Phouma's government, caught between the resurgent activities of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels and the anti-Communist revolutionary movement headed by Phoumi.

Exploding Rounds

Phoumi has repeatedly accused the Phouma regime of being pro-Communist.

During the attack yesterday, the fourth in the vicinity of the capital, since Sept. 11, one mortar shell landed less than 100 yards from the residence of U.S. Ambassador Winthrop Brown. There were no reports of casualties but machinegun tracer bullets zipped through the city and mortar shells landed at a number of points in the town.

One mortar shell landed near the back door of the home of British Embassy Clerk John Goodridge. A British embassy employe, George Mitchell, said another blew a 10-foot hole in the roof of a house next door.

Husband Stabbed By Wife, Dies

Beloit —(AP)— A 47-year-old part-time bartender and factory worker was stabbed to death Saturday night, authorities said, by his wife, the mother of three young children.

Harold Kubitz suffered a deep chest wound near the heart and was dead on arrival at a Beloit hospital. The stabbingt ook place in the family's trailer home, parked a mile north of here.

Rock County Coroner Richard McCaul said Kubitz' 29-year- old wife, Dorothy, had admitted in a statement that she stabbed her husband with a bread knife during an argument.

People Tortured Into Admitting Communism

Saigon, South Viet Nam —(AP)— A district chief and several security officers were convicted last week on charges of torturing a number of innocent persons into admitting they were communists. The Times of Viet Nam reported today.

The English language paper said the district chief, Nguyen Xuan-Hien, received a one year's suspended sentence and six other officers drew jail sentences ranging from three years to five months.

The Times said the sentences were handed down at Dalat in central Viet Nam after 13 persons were illegally arrested and tortured.

Electronic Brains No Threat, IBM Expert Says

Nightmares About Machines Getting Out of Control Won't Come True

Washington —(AP)— If you have nightmares about electron ic brains getting out of control and taking over the world, you can rest easy. An IBM expert says they're no threat to mankind.

However, he also says scientists are trying to cook up something new—a machine that would really imitate the operation of the brain and nervous system of animals, or even a human.

The International Business Machines man, Arthur L. Samuel, started a lively scientific dispute on the subject with Dr. Norbert Wiener, a resident genius of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and originator of the science of cybernetics—the study of electronic computers as they compare with the human nervous system.

Wiener, in an article in the magazine Science, said sophisticated computers might have adverse "moral and technical consequences" for mankind.

Samuel, in the latest issue of Science, made this reply: Wiener CAN possess originality and that they ARE a threat to mankind.

Not Genie

"It is my conviction that machines cannot possess originality in the sense implied by Wiener and that they cannot transcend man's intelligence.

"A machine is not a genie, it does not work by magic, it does not possess a will, and, Wiener to the contrary, nothing comes out which has not been put in, barring of course, an infrequent case of malfunctioning.

"Since the machine does not have a mind of its own, the 'conclusions' are not (the machine's own conclusions.) The so-called 'Conclusions' are only the logical consequences of the input program and input data."

Looking to the future, Samuel said scientists are now trying to develop something different from present-day computer machines. The projected ones would have a "neural net" to simulate a complex living nervous system.

No Threat

Some serious-minded researchers believe, he said, that it might be possible to make such a machine exhibit purposeful activity—just as some animals can be trained to do.

"Since the internal connections (of the machine) would be unknown, the precise behavior of the nets would be unpredictable and, therefore, potentially dangerous," Samuel said.

"At the present time, the largest nets that can be constructed are nearer in size to the nervous system of a flatworm than to the brain of a man and so hardly constitute a threat," he added.

Soviets Bar Pope's Envoy From Berlin

Msgr. Bafile

Archbishop Corrado Bafile says he was prevented from attending a prayer service in a Roman Catholic church in East Berlin Saturday night. The archbishop is an Italian National with ambassadorial rank as the Papal Nuncio to West Germany.

This was the first known case of a foreigner being barred from the Soviet sector of the divided city since the Communist authorities began restricting visits by West Germans three weeks ago.

Bonn government officials called the Communist ban on the prelate "very regrettable and unfriendly." A British embassy spokesman in Bonn said the action was "just another move in the cold war."

Made Impossible

Church officials would not say exactly how the nuncio was barred but explained his participation in the Catholic service in the eastern sector was "made impossible" by a measure of the Communist regime.

The western powers earlier protested the curbs imposed by the Communists were a violation of guarantees of free movement in Berlin laid down in the 4-power agreements governing the occupied city since the end of World War II.

West German visitors to Berlin have to obtain special police permits to enter the Soviet Zone. But foreigners, members of the Allied occupation forces and German residents of the city had not been hindered.

Police Shoot Man Who Wrecked Home

Philadelphia —(AP)— Davila A. Colon, 30, was shot to death Sunday by a policeman after he wrecked the living room of his apartment with seven blasts from a shotgun and threatened policemen at the scene.

Police said the rampage was prompted by an argument with his wife, Helen, 23, who fled with their two children, David, 6, and Richard, 4, when Colon threatened to kill himself. Officers said the couple had been quarreling for several months.

Britains See Setback for Reds in Congo

But Warn Soviets Ready With Swift Counter-Measures

London — (AP) — Britons today viewed recent developments in the Congo as a setback for Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and anticipated that he would get in swift counter-strokes soon after he reached New York.

The latest apparent setback, was the joining of 16 African and Asian countries in a resolution backing U. N. Sec. Gen. Dag Hammarskjold against Soviet attacks.

By banking too heavily on deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba the Reds obviously overplayed their hand, British newspapers asserted. Now their Leopoldville embassies have been expelled.

First Foray

"Communism's first foray into the heart of Africa has failed," said the liberal News Chronicle. The event, it said, was being hailed as the most stunning reverse for the Kremlin since the Hungarian uprising.

"If it is so, then we should look out," warned the Chronicle.

"Mr. Khrushchev has suffered a setback at a most inopportune time, but he is nothing if not resilient, and it would be foolish to imagine that what goodwill he has lost is beyond his power to regain," said the Conservative Daily Telegraph.

"In any event, the fact that Mr. Khrushchev has overplayed his hand in the Congo does not mean that he has lost hope of gaining support among the uncommitted nations on other issues, China, for example, or disarmament."

Banner Headline

The Daily Express spread a banner headline reading: "K is Out for Revenge."

"Khrushchev hoped to conquer America by propaganda, now he finds himself conquered by skillful American diplomacy in Leopoldville," the Express said editorially.

The London Times also warned that Khrushchev was not likely to accept a setback long before he counterattacks.

Patrolman, Chicago Investigator Honored By Police Association

Sheboygan —(AP)— A Whitefish Bay patrolman and a Chicago investigator were honored Saturday night at the national awards dinner of the National Police Officers Association of America.

Patrolman Raymond Brahm, was cited for smashing his way into a burning building last Oct. 12 to lead 12 persons to safety. He was cited for valor, the association's highest honor.

Thirty other policemen who were killed in the line of duty in 1959 were honored posthumously for valor.

Paul D. Dewey, chief investigator for the Cook County state's attorney's office, was given a citation for his part in cracking Chicago's police department scandals.

Several newspapers, television and radio stations were honored for their coverage of police activities.

Growth of Cold War, U.N. Action, Hold Key To Assembly Meeting

Spotlight on All-Star Cast but Session Has Unusual Significance

By MAX HARRELSON

United Nations, N. Y. —(AP)— The spotlight will be on the all-star cast, but the 1960 session of the General Assembly would have attracted unusual headlines even without the big names.

The real significance of the three-month meeting lies in two developments which have drastically affected the international picture in the past six months:

1. The acceleration of the cold war following the collapse of the Big Four summit conference last May.

2. The growing trend to channel world problems to the United Nations rather than deal with them independently.

Scanning the outlook for the coming session, it is difficult to see anything but a colossal propaganda circus.

Most of the 85 questions before the Assembly have been there in the past and will be there again. But the changed international atmosphere is reflected by one new item in particular. This is the Soviet item titled "The Menace to World Peace Created by Aggressive Actions of the United States of America Against the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics."

The world already has had a sampling of what is coming when this question comes up. They can expect a slashing Soviet attack on the United States along the lines previously made in the Security Council on the U2 spy plane and RB47.

Another major issue, the problem of disarmament, has been discussed for years but it takes on special importance because of the breakdown of the 10-nation talks in Geneva which dumped the whole question back into the lap of the assembly.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Eisenhower both are expected to submit arms proposals — and there is little doubt that they will exchange charges which will turn the debate into another major cold war battle.

One of Khrushchev's likely objectives is to administer a severe propaganda beating to the United States, to isolate it, if possible from the underdeveloped nations of Africa, Asia and Latin America.

He may seek to create the impression that the session is a sort of summit rally of "peace loving forces" at a critical turning point in history to defeat the forces of imperialism.

The session will see bitter clashes on such cold war issues as the seating of Red China, the repressions in Hungary and the chasing of the Dalai Lama from Tibet by the Chinese Communists.

The discussions will be complicated by the new East-West struggle over the Congo problem and the Soviet attacks on Secretary-general Dag Hammarskjold.

There is little optimism that any major achievements will be recorded by the Assembly under the circumstances. One of the few will be the admission of 14 or more new African nations, which will in the future add to the strength of the growing neutralist force in the world organization.

Coeds Forced Out by Big School Enrollment

Urbana, Ill. —(AP)— Eighty coeds at the University of Illinois are lodging temporarily in dormitory lounges and recreation rooms and the university hospital because of a record enrollment.

Another 250 to 300 undergraduate women were turned away because of lack of rooms. A university spokesman said enrollment will reach 22,200.

State GOP Announces Huge Rally in Madison Oct. 4

National Chairman Morton, State, County Candidates to be Present

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison — Jaunty Republicans are planning what they describe as the biggest political rally in the capital city in modern times on Oct. 4, the day both political parties will assemble their state and legislative candidates for drafting official platforms.

Local organization chiefs and workers, county courthouse candidates, congressional bidders, other luminaries up through National Chairman Thruston Morton will converge on Madison for the day.

Republicans are perky because of the comparatively good vote they polled in last week's primary.

Exploit Morale

GOP Chairman Claude Jasper and the party headquarters staff are anxious to exploit the morale bonus of that event with a slam-bang start for the fall campaign.

Both parties will send their nominees to Madison for their respective platform conventions.

Democrats are likely to make it a general political rally, although details have not been announced.

While Republicans are gleefully pointing to the fact they got a majority of all votes in the primary, there will be an oblique reminder when they assemble of the minority status to which they were relegated when the Democrats won the elections two years ago.

Campaign Clinic

The majority party gets its choice of a statehouse meeting room, by law. For many years the Republicans enjoyed first choice and picked the commodious state assembly chamber. This year the Democrats will have that privilege.

Republicans will hold a campaign clinic session for party workers and other non-platform convention participants while the office nominees meet in the capitol to write the pledges and the principles with which they hope to persuade the electorate to turn the Democrats out of office.

Traditionally the nominee for governor is the principal author of the platform. Philip Kuehn, the GOP choice this year, is likely to consult closely, however, with Republican legislative leadership which made much of the record on which he will run.

Official Platforms

Gov. Gaylord Nelson will be the chief source of planks for the Democratic platform convention, and may prune the long document written at the voluntary Democratic delegate convention earlier this summer.

Legislative leaders there had difficulty suppressing the desire of non-office holding Democrats to make pledges that would imply costly new expenditures and taxation boosts.

The central question before both conventions will be statements on tax policy.

Both parties in their delegate conventions adopted statements that outsiders found equivocal, in the sense that they did not face the realities of state fiscal problems, or did not wholly square with the positions of the party's chief leaders.

Tax Study

Nelson can again propose to await developments by his "blue ribbon" tax study commission, which is expected to report a tax revision blue-print before year's end.

His problem will be to prevent his convention from anticipating and possibly repudiating the findings of that bi-partisan group at work for two years.

Platforms that will evolve will be official in the sense that they are required by law of the candidates nominated in the primaries. Earlier platforms were merely expressions of view of voluntary political associations that do not have statutory recognition and are not directly binding on office-holders.

Select Theme For Exposition At Convention

National Railroad Museum Site for Green Bay Parley

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — "Revolution in Transportation" has been chosen as the theme for the exposition to be held at the national railroad museum during the 47th annual convention of the American Short Line Railroad association here in October.

The exposition will be held at the museum grounds at W. D. Cooke park in Ashwaubenon Oct. 1 to 5, the convention dates. It is sponsored by the Short Line Railroad association, Green Bay Traffic club, Delta Nu Alpha transportation fraternity, the Green Bay area Chamber of Commerce, and the museum itself.

Twenty-eight exhibitors already have reserved space for showings of their products, including everything from a remote-controlled locomotive unit to a device for weed control along railroad rights-of-way.

Dedicate Building

The exhibits will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily during the convention. The Oct. 5 program includes dedication of the Short Line memorial building at the museum.

Hundreds of Short Line railroad executives and operating supervisors are expected here for the convention. Headquarters will be at the Hotel Northland. General sessions will be held there Oct. 4 and 5.

Daniel P. Loomis, president of the Association of American Railroads, will be the principal speaker at the convention banquet. This will be held at 7 p.m. Oct. 3 at the Elks club.

Convention business session speakers will include: Francis A. O'Neill, Jr., chairman of the National Mediation board; John H. Winchell, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission; Howard W. Habermeyer, chairman of the Rialroad Retirement board; and Thomas M. Healy, a member of the Railroad Retirement board.

The convention committee includes:

V. M. Bushman, president of the Ahnapee and Western, general chairman; D. B. Bowles, convention chairman; N. J. Leiberg, assistant chairman; Gail F. Meintzer, Green Bay Traffic club president; Ben W. Erickson, Victor Paque, Bay West Paper company; John Torinus, Press - Gazette; John Black, Chicago and North Western railway; Harold Fuller, Green Bay Steel Tube company; and John Borgenson, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Wisconsin's Largest Fish Has At Least 40 Names, Charlie Says

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Pulpourri — Ever wonder how this state's largest fish, the muskellunge got its name? Truth to tell, it has had many. The Wisconsin Chippewa Indians called it the Maskin-onja which means "long nose," but the French Canadians called it the masque-longue which means "long fish." The fish we commonly call the musky has at least 40 names...

House

People who know about such things believe that the musky entered what has become Wisconsin, about 20,000 years ago. It is thought that they entered here by swimming up the Mississippi River and into the rivers and lakes which were formed by the melting of the great glaciers. As the lakes and rivers of ancient times dried up, the musky was trapped, and here it remains.

It is found only in the eastern parts of North America in the waters of the Great Lakes and in Canada. Its relative, the northern pike, lives everywhere in the waters of North America, and in Europe and Russia, too.

What's in a name? When William Horlick, a Wisconsin fellow, invented malted milk, he named it "diastoid." One wonders if it could have attained such popularity as it has under such a medicinal title. At any rate, Horlick first put it on the market in 1882.

Are you angry at Nicholas Pike?

Well, I think you should be. He was the rascal who is responsible for the English sparrows in this country. Pike believed that the sparrow would eat the caterpillars which ruined shade trees, so he imported eight pairs of the pesky birds from England. That was about 110 years ago—and look now! Pike could have saved us from a great nuisance if he had stopped to observe the sparrow. The bird eats seeds— not caterpillars.

The guy who is responsible for all those whodunits on TV is a fellow you don't know about, but he set the style in 1630 when he earned the unpleasant honor of being the subject of America's first formal execution for murder.

His name was John Billington, and the record of the time reads like this: "arraigned and by both grand and petie jurie found guilty of wilful murdere by plaine and notorious evidence and was for the same accordingly executed.

"This, as it was ye firste execution, was a matter of great sadness to the pilgrims . . . he way-laid a young man, John New-Comin (about a quarele) shote him with a gune, whereof he dyed."

If you are an average person and you live to be 70 years old, which is about average, you suend 23 years of your life in sleeping, 19 in working, nine in recreation, six in traveling, six in eating, two in dressing and one year attending to religion. So say people who think about things like that.

Perhaps the most useful kind of food today is the plain chicken egg. Epicures estimate that there are some 450 different ways of preparing them for table. Would you be interested in one of mine which is popular with the House kids?

They call it "dad's hunter's special" but I don't know its real name. I chose "hunter's special" to get them interested in eating them.

I cut, or tear, a hole in a slice of bread. I start to fry the bread in a frying pan with a minimum of butter, very slowly. After it gets a good start I break an egg and drop it into the hole in the bread and it fries together and stays in. It can be eaten while clutched in the hand.

I wonder if the people of the city of Pulaski know that Count Casimer Pulaski, after whom that city is named, had his own flag and motto. I wonder, too, if by extension, the motto and flag might not be the proper one for that city.

At any rate, when Pulaski joined the army of Gen. Washington, he was organizing a corps of cavalry at Baltimore. The Moravian sisters at Bethlehem, Pa., made the banner for him. It was of rich, crimson silk and emblazoned with a border and a central figure—a single eye in a triangle

The motto is Non Alius Regit, which translates roughly to "he shall not force his opinions on others."

Y'r welcome, Pulaski.

Seek Volunteers For Projects at State Hospital

The annual drive to obtain volunteer workers for clerical work or work with patients at Winnebago State Hospital begin today, according to Robert Last, volunteer coordinator at the hospital.

A joint effort to recruit volunteers will be made by Red Cross chapters in Neenah, Menasha, Appleton and Oshkosh.

Volunteers are needed to do typing and filing, write letters for patients, or aid in art, craft, music and recreation projects, Last said.

Church or civic groups also may sponsor specific patient groups. Volunteers may contact Last at the Winnebago State Hospital.

Group to Study Person of Christ

An inquiry forum on the challenge of the person of Jesus Christ in our time will be held in the school basement of St. Mary Catholic church at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday and on the following Tuesdays.

The Rev. Raymond Zagorski, assistant pastor, will conduct the forum. The Rev. Mr. Zargorski said it will be "an opportunity to see the Catholic church from the inside as a vital organism, the extention of Christ into space and time.

Veteran Aid Program Hits $85 Million

Loans for Homes, Rehabilitation Most Often Asked

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Total aid to World war II veterans by the state department of veterans affairs has passed the $85,000,000 mark, the legislature was informed by a report from the agency, set up 17 years ago to help returning servicemen and women.

The program is a continuing one, and the present pace of activities indicates that assistance will continue for an indefinite period. Most of the assistance has been in the form of loans, notably housing loans, which operate on a revolving fund basis. As collections are made on mortgages outstanding, the money is used to issue new loans.

More than $62,000,000 of the amount disbursed has gone for housing loans to World war II veterans, who are permitted to borrow up to $3,500 on second mortgages, when they have other credit available for the primary financing.

Numerous Requests

Loans are being sought at a comparatively brisk rate in most state counties. A handful of exceptions are in the far northern zones, where population is declining.

The state board of government operations periodically appropriates reserves to keep the lending program moving according to county quotas previously established.

Other forms of assistance thus far have amounted to about $21,000,000, according to the report to the legislature, and the most important category has been loans for individual veteran rehabilitation.

The Wisconsin program was designed as an alternative to cash bonus acts voted by some other states.

The board of government operations this week heard Wesley Schwoegler, Dane county veterans service officer, describe the selective Wisconsin aid program as the best in the country.

The Threat to Our Elms

Several weeks ago the Post-Crescent sent Reporter Jay Reed to Rockford and Winnetka, Ill., to write about the contrast between those two cities' experiences with the Dutch Elm disease. Reed's articles were frankly intended to jolt municipal officials here in the Fox Cities into a realization of the terrible threat that hangs over our beautiful elm trees in this area, and to point out that they can be saved by a prompt and well-planned program of action.

We picked Rockford and Winnetka because of the great contrast in the experiences of those cities. Rockford dilly-dallied in trying to set up a program to control the disease, became enmeshed in bitter arguments among city officials and citizens and, in short, failed to do anything effective. As a result Rockford today is a city of dead and dying elms, in fact the elms are dying so fast the city cannot remove them fast enough and the scarred and drooping remains of once-beautiful trees are seen everywhere throughout the city. In contrast, Winnetka developed an effective prevention program early in the game and as a result its elms have been saved. The city's beauty is unsullied by the ravages of the disease.

The most startling contrast, however, is in the cost figures supplied by these two cities to our reporter. Winnetka figures its total — and highly successful — prevention program has cost approximately $7 per tree. Rockford, on the other hand, figures it is costing over $60 just to remove each dead tree! The removal program alone has become a very substantial item in Rockford's city budget.

Thus we think it should now be completely clear to municipal officials in the Fox Cities that we must launch a preventive program, and we must do it soon — not only to save our trees, but to avoid the terrific later cost of removing dead trees. The Dutch Elm disease already has struck in the Fox Cities (a diseased tree has been found in Neenah), and unless we move quickly it will begin spreading throughout the area.

But here, once again, we run up against an old problem — the multiplicity of municipal governments in our metropolitan area. There are seven separate city and village municipal governments in the Fox Cities, and so far not one of them has made any real move toward an effective preventive program. The important fact, of course, is that the Dutch Elm disease is no respecter of municipal boundary lines; as we understand it, even the best preventive program in one municipality will fail if a similar program does not exist in a neighboring municipality. (Although we have not investigated it ourselves, we have been told that this is what has happened in Champaign-Urbana, Ill.) In fact it might even develop that good programs in six of our seven municipalities could be nullified by the failure of the seventh to do anything. Or even if all seven do a good job, the disease still might creep in through the unprotected trees of neighboring townships.

Thus it is quite evident that we are faced with a situation that calls for unified action among the Fox Cities. We suggest that, as a first step, one of the cities take the lead and call a meeting of all city mayors, village presidents and town chairmen of the Fox Cities area, along with their park commissioners and public works directors, to start a unified program.

Whether we know it or not, this is an emergency.

Public Employe Unions Are Political Subject

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — It is not altogether clear why, but the question of labor unions in public employment has been brought to the forefront of the gubernatorial campaign with statements by Philip Kuehn, the Republican candidate, and Gov. Gaylord Nelson, Democratic incumbent.

Wyngaard

It may be that Kuehn's original challenge on the subject related to the fact that the municipal garbagemen of his neighboring community of Shorewood struck not long ago. In any event, Kuehn is on the record with some reservations about the legitimacy of labor organizations in the usual sense in the public service, and with a demand for outlawing strikes of public employes.

Gov. Nelson, not surprisingly, says he believes unions in governmental service are legitimate. He didn't make a point of it, but he signed into law last year a proposal that the public employe union lobby has demanded for years — requiring local governments to recognize such unions. Nelson seemed to leave the strike question hanging when he remarked that they already are illegal, and that a county or a city could dismiss striking employes if it chose to do so.

This observer is not a specialist in labor law, but Kuehn's point would seem to be that public employes do occasionally strike, and strike with impunity, and that the situation poses some perils.

SHADOW-BOXING

The curious listener to these exchanges may well wonder whether there isn't some shadow-boxing involved.

Candidate Kuehn is perfectly aware that before Nelson got into politics in a serious way he was a lawyer who worked mostly in the field of municipal labor relations and that he was in fact for a considerable period retained by an organization of municipal employe unions.

Kuehn's challenge might have been designed to bring out, among other things, that the Democratic governor has less freedom of action on this subject than another might have — because of previous associations and commitments.

It might also have been designed to anticipate the next big legislative campaign of the public employe unions — already announced clearly — which will be to secure state legislation to force counties, cities and other local governments that are theoretically "home ruled" to bargain collectively with unions.

Here he may well have a more palatable point than in his objections to unions as such. The latter would not seem to be very timely, when a substantial proportion, probably more than half, of all the governmental employes of the state and its localities are already listed on the dues rolls of some union, with no visible objection from the public.

THE ISSUE

Mandatory recognition and bargaining by independent local governments is something quite different, and something that local government associations representing every political viewpoint and taste will resist to a man.

Such a law would be the equivalent of saying that a labor union of janitors, as an example, or secretaries, stands with a better relation to the democratically elected local government than any other special interest group, the Parent Teacher association, or the Taxpayers' League, or the Tavern Keepers Alliance.

The others would be required to rely upon the polls to exercise their influence; the union would have the benevolent intervention of a mandatory state law.

Friends of the union idea retort angrily that a public employe should not have lesser rights than the employe of a private enterprise. But it may be that the public employe has perquisites in compensation for his peculiar employer relationship in a popular governmental system, including the protections of civil service ordinances and laws in a majority of instances. At a time when he represents about an eighth of the working population, and surely a larger ratio of the effective political population, he also has the protection of electoral action.

Eye Soviet Motives in Congo

From The New York Daily News

It seems more and more evident that Soviet Russia is moving in for a takeover of the former Belgian Congo.

Soviet planes keep streaming into the area, carrying "advisers" and war gear that melt out of sight of United Nations forces trying to restore order. It is a good guess that this equipment is going to the leftist Premier Patrice Lumumba, whose obvious ambition is to make himself the uncrowned king of the Congo.

The Congo is still the UN's responsibility, primarily. UN peace trops are there, with Lumumba's consent.

But it is to the vital interest of the free world that Soviet Russia be prevented from taking up in the Congo where the Belgian colonial exploiters left off.

We wish the free world's principal UN members and bankrollers would ask the UN some pointed questions, such as: "What are you doing to thwart Russia's Congo ambitions?" and "Do you really want to thwart them?" and "if not, why not?"

The New Menominee County

Before Congress adjourned it served notice upon the State of Wisconsin and the Indians on the Menominee Reservation that federal control over the Indians will terminate April 30, 1961. The Indians through representatives in Congress from this area had fought hard for the Laird bill which would have extended federal control until July 1, 1961. During the last moments of the Congressional argument Sen. Alexander Wiley made a special plea for the Laird bill. However, the Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee refused to go along with the extension to July and only reluctantly agreed to delay action until April 30.

It was made quite clear during the hearings that certain members of the Senate are very anxious to get rid of Indians as dependents. Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N. Mex.) made a big point of the expense of the Menominees to the federal government. He served notice that he would not approve any future legislation that would permit the Indian tribe to borrow federal funds for improvement of its sawmill operations after the termination of federal supervision. He pointed to a magazine article which said that the Menominee mill had been made modern and efficient by an expenditure of $150,000 and had doubled its former output. He called an official of the Bureau of Indian Affairs to read a breakdown of money already spent by the government on termination into the record. These expenditures totaled more than $2.3 million since 1954.

An official of the Health, Education and Welfare Department testified that $1,000,000 was necessary to bring the sanitation conditions of the reservation up to Wisconsin standards and to make it efficient. He said loans might be made before termination but no program was in existence now which could provide funds after termination unless Congress approved a supplemental appropriations bill.

What is happening here is that the federal government is getting rid of a continual bill of expense. It is not turning the Indians out to make their way on their own because, even though it wants to terminate federal supervision, it apparently is not convinced the Indians are ready to go alone. The net result of course will be turning the problem over to the state government. Instead of a federal Indian reservation there will be a Wisconsin county but a special sort of a county which will require a great deal of supervision and control by state agencies. The state rushed into this situation because it was feared that if the Indians were dropped by the federal government they soon would be exploited by people anxious to get control of their valuable timber lands. Rather than permit this, the state undertook to assist the Indians in preparing for separation from the federal government.

Just how much responsibility the state has assumed has not been determined. Discussion by members of the Senate has indicated, however, that it will be difficult to get any additional federal aid in this particular case. The Menominee Indians are rated as quite wealthy and it may be assumed that they will be expected to get along on their own resources. However, the state plan puts some very strict regulations on the disposition of any of the tribal assets which may make it difficult to finance the program.

Fine Example

"You can tell the man who boozes
By the company he chooses —
And the pig got up and slowly walked away."

The United States decision to restrict Fidel Castro to the same Manhattan limits as Khrushchev and some other Iron Curtain representations was a happy one. The decision will not change Castro by humiliation. It simply is recognition that Castro, like the Russians, is doing everything possible to knife the United States in the back.

Castro has been shrieking through his beard against the U.S. for months. He has seized private property of U.S. citizens with no suggestion of reimbursement. He has used forged papers to try to prove the U.S. was involved in a plot to get rid of him. He has closed critical newspapers, jailed those who opposed his uncontrolled power, recognized Red China and bubbled with joy about Russian visits. He has followed without hesitation the Communist line toward totalitarian power.

Like Khrushchev, Castro has the right as head of a state to visit and be heard at U.N. headquarters in New York. Like Khrushchev he should be treated within the limit of the law and not one step beyond. And the colder the reception, the better.

Drivers, Pedestrians, Bike Riders Disregard Safety Regulations

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Last evening I drove through Appleton on an errand. As I drove into the city I saw a "one-eyed" car. (One with only one headlight burning.) It recalled to me the letter in the Forum concerning a "one-eyed" police car and a "no-eyed" wreck. I decided I would count the "one-eyes" as I drove along.

As it happened, I did see four (4) one-eyes on my approximately 3-mile drive. But, to my surprise, I counted thirteen (13) bicycles with no lights or visible reflectors. I lost count of the individuals who darted across my path in mid-blocks instead of at intersections. Most of these violators were young adults and adults; not children. (The time was 7 p.m.)

I am not going to yell, "Where's the Appleton Police Department?" I think matters like those mentioned are up to the people themselves.

Every year, year in and out, Appleton policemen visit schools and lecture on safety. Their eager, young listeners usually take safety seriously. Why they seem to outgrow their regard for common sense safety rules is a mystery none of us can understand.

If you drive a car it is not hard to understand that headlights do fail and usually at the most inconvenient times. Even police vehicles can be as temperamental as the most pedigreed foreign sports car when it comes to headlight burn-outs.

It also seems reasonable to cautiously drive a lightless, disabled wreck a few blocks to get it off of a narrow street or roadway where it might be instrumental in causing another accident.

I guess what I want to point up is whether it be an auto, a bike or a tractor and whether it be operated by a child, student, multi-millionaire or great-grandfather, that it is up to that person, his conscience, his commonsense and his regard for life that he keep his vehicle lighted, in repair and drive according to conditions.

If an individual would drive his "Super-666" like it was a "Model-A" we would all be safer. Too much confidence in super-brakes and safety-belts and personal skill at the wheel or handle bars probably has caused more deaths and suffering than ever can be measured.

An article on speech making appearing in a London magazine tells how Lord Hewart, then chief lord justice, rose very late one evening to reply to a toast. He said he had expected to be called late, so had prepared two speeches — one short, the other longer. Now he had decided to make both (weary sigh from the audience). He continued: "I will begin with the short one, which was 'Thanks,' and I will also give you the longer which was 'Thank you very much.'" He got the loudest applause of the evening.

Loss of Old-Time Drinking Cup Minor Disaster

From The Anderson (S.C.) Independent

Among the minor disasters of this modern age is the loss of the old-time drinking cup, glass, gourd, or whatever it was that the family drank from in the kitchen.

It is true that the modern kitchen, with its built-in stove, sink, electrical devices that take the place of hand motion, the indirect lighting, the air-conditioning, the breakfast noks and the luncheon cubicles are morvels of efficiency. That is, in all respects except something to drink from.

In most circles, it is considered downright tacky today to have a drinking glass or cup handy. Sanitation of course may enter into the thinking, but most of the regard is for what would the neighbors think. The time-honored old gourd, the tin dipper, the tall glass no longer invite you to quaff deeply of refreshing water. They are gone but not forgotten.

Lumumba Cries Defiance to Mobutu's Coup know how to deal with Bakasa" and the other officers he said were in the plot.

Congolese forces invading secessionist Katanga province meantime agreed to withdraw, dealing Lumumba another blow in his struggle for power.

Shouts Defiance

The United Nations peace mission said the commander of Lumumba's striking forces Sunday approved creation of a 60-mile wide no-man's-land along the Katanga-Kivu border. That buffer zone, if observed, would go a long way toward restoring peace.

Lumumba, ousted as premier by President Joseph Kasavubu, came out of three days hiding shouting defiance but Col. Joseph Mobutu, the Congo's rising strongman, appeared to have the situation in hand in the capital.

Lumumba, who disappeared Wednesday when Mobutu seized power, showed up at his house Sunday and place himself under the protection of U. N. troops. He was believed to have hidden out in the Guinean mission after attempts to lynch him.

Insists Still Premier

From his residence, flying the U.N. flag, Lumumba insisted to newsmen he was still premier. He said he had appealed to the United Nations for air transport to New York to take over the Congolese delegation before the General Assembly but had gotten no answer.

Lumumba summoned Parliament for another meeting today. Troops under Mobutu's command squelched a Sunday session Lumumba had called by turning back the two dozen senators and deputies who showed up.

Congolese sources said agents of the deposed premier were trying to stir up tribal strife but that Lumumba's strength was weakened by the hasty departure over the weekend of Soviet and Czechoslovak diplomats expelled by Mobutu.

Bolck Attempt

Lumumba declared it was "not right" to oust the Communist diplomats and declared "I will take steps soon to put this right."

He said the U. N. had blocked his attempt to fly into the capital troops from Stanleyville, his home town stronghold 775 miles northeast of Leopoldville.

Antoine Bolamba, secretary of state for information and cultural affairs in Lumumba's government, rolled out tracts and pamphlets in an attempt to rally support behind the ousted premier.

One communique issued by Bolamba's office said Lumumba and Kasavubu had settled their differences. But Kasavubu said they had not reached any agreement and declared "it is the practice of Lumumba to go beyond reality."

on the assembly meeting and have also come to the conclusion that serious negotiation can be undertaken in the U.N. to reach a disarmament agreement."

Khrushchev said the Soviet delegation was coming to the United States "in the name of consolidating peace and solving complicated international issues."

Statement Translated

He termed "the problem of general and complete disarmament under the appropriate strict international control" as the cardinal question of international relationship.

He said "the evil forces who want to poison the asmosphere in relations between our countries will invariably sustain a defeat."

Khrushchev spoke into a public address microphone. He paused after each sentence or two while a translator put his words into English. The complete procedure took 35 minutes.

Other communist officials also addressed the gathering on the pier.

Rain Keeps Crowd Away

After the speeches, Khrushchev was sped in a black limousine, surrounded by police car escort, to the headquarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations, at Park avenue and 68th street.

The continuing downpour of rain kept thoroughfares along the 2½-mile route virtually deserted.

The Baltika's arrival in New York was formally chill.

Police and coast guard helicopters circled the small white ship as it headed toward Quarantine, off Staten Island.

Visibility was down to about three miles in fog and light rain when the ship picked up a pilot and headed toward the city.

A boatload of longshoremen headed out to meet the Baltika and give it a Seaborne Bronx cheer.

Can't Approach Ship

All boats were warned to stay at least 500 feet from the Soviet ship.

Khrushchev came in a day after screaming, chanting mobs greeted the first of a procession of controversial foreign leaders to arrive for the U.N. General Assembly session, which starts tomorrow.

He was accompanied by Janos Kadar, first secretary of the Hungarian Communist party; First Secretary Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej of Rumania, First Secretary Todor Zhivkov of Bulgaria and other communist leaders.

Hundreds of police and security officials watched as Russian officials lined up cars at the pier to take the Khrushchev party to the Soviet U.N. delegation on Park avenue.

Pier 73, at E. 25th street, one of the city's most dilapidated, was under heavy guard all night.

Anti-Red Pickets

On East river drive, more than 150 anti-communist pickets marched and jeered. Their ranks grew by the minute.

At the end of Pier 73, the flags of the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania flew in a light drizzle.

Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro was the first of a procession of anti-American foreign leaders to arrive yesterday. Later, Wladyslaw Gomulka, communist leader of Poland, and Czechoslovakian President Antonin Novotny flew in.

African, Asian Nations Back Hammarskjold

view that Hammarskjold was backing the Belgian colonialists in the Congo. He also said, "The Soviet Union has helped and will help the Congolese people in their struggle for independence."

The Asian-African resolution, introduced Sunday night, asked Hammarskjold "to continue to take vigorous action" to help the Congolese government keep law and order.

15,000 in U.N. Force

Hammarskjold has put an 18,000 man U.N. force in the Congo for that purpose. Without mentioning the force, the proposal called on all countries to refrain from sending war materials and military personnel to the Congo at this time "except upon the request of the United Nations through the secretary-general."

This appeal, the resolution said was "without prejudice to the sovereign rights of the Republic of the Congo"—whose sometime Premier Patrice Lumumba has accepted Soviet planes and trucks in his fight against secession movements and has insisted he is entitled to get aid outside the U.N.

Diplomatic sources said this qualification was inserted to get Ghana and Guinea to become sponsors.

Other Sponsors

The other sponsors were Ceylon, Indonesia, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, Liberia, Libya, Morocco, Nepal, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Tunisia, the United Arab Republic and Yemen.

The resolution also would start a voluntary U. N. aid fund for the Congo and authorize establishment of a U. N. committee to help the Congolese settle their internal conflicts.

Introducing the resolution Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana said the Assembly must act now—and warned the big powers they would be "playing with fire" if they tried to interfere in Congolese affairs.

In sharp reply to Communist criticisms, Hammarskjold denied he had refused to help the Congolese government — but conceded that he had refused to let that government "turn the United Nations force into a national force" to be used for its own purposes.

The secretary-general denied accusations he had refused to see Lumumba.

"It was th prime minister who showed very clearly that he had no interest in seeing me," he said.

Youth, 14, Admits Shooting Woman

Snyder, Texas —(AP)— A 14-year old Snyder boy has admitted he riddled a farmer's wife with bullets and left her body where she fell in a cotton field Aug. 8.

The youth said he mistook her for a male Latin-American farm worker and told questioners coldly "I hate 'em".

Dist. Atty. Wayland Holt declined to name the boy, who is 5 feet and one inch tall and weighs less than 100 pounds, except to say he is the eldest of six children in a family of moderate means. He is being held without formal charge.

Relatives found the body of Mrs. Mary Inez Wilson, 36, face down in the field. Police said eight to 10 bullets from a .22 caliber rifle struck her, most of them from the waist up.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID'S unequalled rebulking action helps restone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! Introductory size 43¢.

Woman, 99, Looking To Trip to Minnesota

New London — Mrs. Frances Myers, 1320 Lawrence street, who observed her 99th birthday Saturday at her home, is completing plans to leave Tuesday morning for Ceylon, Minn., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Burt Barnett.

Although 98 years of living has started a physical decline, Mrs. Myers is mentally alert and looking forward to the 400-mile automobile trip to Ceylon.

This is the first year Mrs. Myers has not had her full garden. She claims she would liked to have had her usual vegetables and flowers, although she admits tiring easily. She did, however, convince her daughter, who has been staying with her, that she could manage a couple tomato plants.

Independent Life

With the exception of this year, Mrs. Myers has lived a full independant life. She did all of her own work and was a neighborhood model of growing old gracefully.

She was born Sept. 17, 1861, in Buffalo, N. Y., and came with her family to Royalton when she was six years old.

Her favorite story of her early childhood concerns her patricipation in the county fair. She had quite a reputation as a butter maker. When fair time rolled around, she made a batch of exceptionally good butter to enter in competition.

Walked to School

She made two quarts of butter and gave one quart to her sister to enter in the same contest. The judges, however, foiled the hoax by awarding first places to both jars of butter. She said she felt proud of the judges, who might have looked a little sheepish if they had learned they gave one portion of the butter a first place and the other a lesser place.

Mrs. Myers is the former Frances Ravey. She recalls that she had to walk three miles daily to attend school.

She recalls that her oldest son's first child came only six months after the birth of her last son, Evan. Her great-granddaughter, Shirley Tysver, Fergus Falls, Minn., was married Saturday, the day of her birthday.

Children Listed

Her sons and daughters are Wilbur, Lake City, S. D.; Edward, Fontana, Calif.; Mrs. Cora Malchow, Oshkosh; Mrs. John Eggert, and Frank Myers, New London. Clinton, Manawa, and Evan, Plymouth. Evan is 57 and Wilbur is 78.

She also has 26 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren, and 13 great-great-grandchildren.

Presidential Campaign Sounding Monotonous

Candidates Repeating Same Two Themes Everywhere They Go, Columnist Says

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

Washington —(AP)— This presidential campaign begins to sound monotonous. The candidates are repeating pretty much the same two themes everywhere they go.

The themes are leadership and the contest with Russia.

The only heat has been the religious issue. Neither candidate created that. It came from Protestants opposed to the Roman Catholicism of Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Monotony Deadly

Since monotony can be deadly as a shotgun, it is unlikely that the candidates can continue their warmed-over arguments indefinitely. They may get rougher, and they probably will.

Or change may be forced on them these next two weeks because of what the Eisenhower administration and Premier Nikita Khrushchev do or fail to do at the United Nations in New York.

The essential reason for the unfiery campaign is that Nixon and Kennedy are arguing not so much about doing things differently as about doing them better.

Their two main themes—leadership and the contest with Russia—were predictable as campaign issues long before the campaign began. Democrats and Republicans had been arguing them for years.

Nixon and Kennedy simply took them over and made them personal.

For years Democrats had accused President Eisenhower and his administration of lack of leadership. It was a ready-made argument for any Democratic candidate.

Kennedy adopted it and did the obvious by offering himself as the answer.

This gave Nixon a double trouble. As part of the administration, he had to defend it. He also had to get across the idea that if elected he would be more than just a carbon copy of Eisenhower.

So he, too, did the obvious. While defending Eisenhower but trying to appear as his own man, Nixon promised to build on the Eisenhower foundation and then some.

Walk Gingerly

Kennedy has to walk gingerly when he talks of the contest with Russia. He must avoid sounding defeatist while trying to say this country lags behind the Soviet effort.

Here his tactic is to promise he will throw more of the national resources into the contest.

Nixon, not a man to stay on the defensive if he can help it, does the obvious on this one.

He calls Kennedy a prophet of gloom and doom while appealing to national pride and optimism by assuring voters this country is doing just fine.

William Lamers Wins Hollandtown Schut

Marksmen Run Low on Ammunition As Bird Is Downed on 1,195th Shot

BY ED VAN BERKEL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Hollandtown — As far as can be ascertained, a record number of shots were used Sunday before William Lamers, route 3, Kaukauna, was declared king of the 111th Hollandtown Schut.

Firing at the bird hoisted to the top of a 96-foot pole started at 11 a.m. and it was shortly after 1 p.m. when Lamers toppled the bird after 1,195 shots. Previous records list 1,122 as high for the number of shots although some Hollandtown residents claim more than 1,195 have been used on occasion, but not all records are available. Last year 611 shots were used.

Marksmen were beginning to run out of ammunition as firing continued into the nineteenth round for the 64 men competing. Competitors from Hollandtown and surrounding areas hit the target consistently, but all marveled at the well-constructed bird and its durability.

King of Event

Lamers was presented the velvet cape and silver parrot by last year's king, Richard Schmidt. The cape and parrot are worn throughout the day by the king as he reigns over a day of dining, dancing and fun. Next year Lamers will shoot the second shot in defense of his crown. The first shot is fired by the pastor of the Catholic parish.

Sharing honors with the king were Jerry Liebergen who knocked the head from the bird, Gordon Lamers who bagged the tail and Vitus VandeWettering and Bernard Driessen who shot off the wings. Each received rewards for their efforts.

The heavy body was knocked from the pole shortly after marksmen were heard to mutter, "I've only one shell left." Many were forced to borrow or purchase additional shells from other shooters as some reported with only 15 bullets, normally enough for the round. In some cases rifle barrells grew hot from heavy shooting as three or four men were using the same gun.

George Vande Wettering, 70-year-old veteran of many Schuts, was again the oldest of the competitors while several teenagers also tried their hands, including the defending king. In the 111 years of competition, no king has ever held the title two years in a row although several men have won the event more than once.

The St. Francis society is sponsor for the event, the only Schut held annually in this country. The custom had its origin in Holland and has been carried out in Hollandtown each year since 1849.

Acorn Caps Make Excellent Checkers for Favorite Game

BY CAPPY CICK

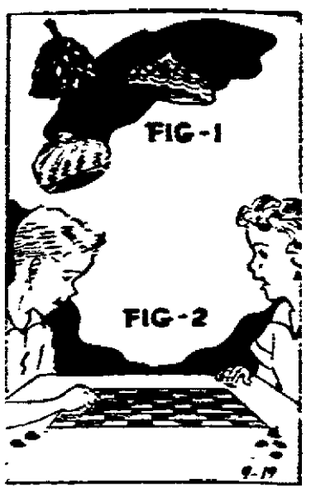
Boys and girls who like to play checkers will enjoy using acorn caps instead of regulation checkers.

The game is played the same way and an ordinary checkerboard is used (Figure 2). It just seems like a lot more fun when you use acorn caps. The idea is especially useful if you have an old checkerboard and have lost the checkers that went with it.

There are many varieties of acrosn, so it will be easy to find a different set of caps for each player. Look for these under oak trees. Figure 1 shows three varieties. Use the flat caps for one color of checkers and the high caps of the burr oak acorn for the other color. Find 12 of each kind to make a complete set of 24.

It is handy to leave the stems on the caps so they may be picked up and moved across the board. When you want to crown a king by placing one checker on top of the other, the stems will not interfere.

If you give each cap a coat of shellac, the checkers will have a nice gloss that will add to their attractiveness. Allow the shellac plenty of time to dry.



Each player has his own kind or variety of acorn checkers.

The same caps may be used as "men" in other kinds of games.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BAA Activity at KHS Delayed by Work on Field

Kaukauna — Football, the first sport on the schedule of activities for the boys' athletic association at Kaukauna High school will be delayed slightly due to reseeding work carried out on the athletic field.

Use of the field is being delayed as much as possible to permit the grass to get a good start, according to David Hash, phy ed instructor. Games will be played on the grounds behind the library, but the size of the area permits playing only one game at a time. After teams are set competition will begin.

Two Motorists Admit Speeding Violations

Kaukauna — Two motorists pleaded guilty of traffic violations when arraigned before Oscar T. Jahns, justice of the peace, Friday afternoon, with one fined and the other losing driving privileges for 30 days.

Miss Judith F. Stanelle, 16, route 2, Hilbert, lost her driver's license for 30 days and paid court costs and William Schmitz, 21, 802 North St., Appleton, paid $10.

KHS Students to Hold Car Wash

Kaukauna — The student council at Kaukauna High school will sponsor a car wash to benefit the foreign student exchange fund at Mather's service station Saturday.

Members of the student council will be assigned times to be at the station and an effort is being made to secure a station on the northside to permit car washing on both sides of the city.

A similar event in 1959 proved successful, thus a second was scheduled, according to Hope Goetzman, council president.

New Approach Told for Burns

By FRANK CAREY

Bethesda, Md. —(AP)— A new approach to saving lives threatened by severe burns was suggested today by a St. Louis doctor.

It would involve use of strong drugs, such as digitalis, to stimulate the pumping action of the heart—with the objective of lessening the burn shock, which is a principal cause of death in burn cases.

Shock in burns means a state of general collapse, arising from an acute reduction in the circulation of blood to and from vital tissues, and the piling up of unwanted fluids in such tissues. In severe burns, death can occur in from a few minutes to a couple of hours — with the immediate cause of death usually being pulmonary edema, a swelling of the lungs with fluid.

Dr. Henry A. Fozzard of Washington University's School of Medicine reported the new approach to scientists from 17 nations at the first international conference on research in burns. The meeting is sponsored by the armed services and the U. S. Public Health Service.

His prepared report said new evidence suggests that the potentially lethal shock is triggered by an actual injury to the muscle of the heart in some still-undetermined manner.

"Hitherto, the immediate cause of burn shock has been attributed to various factors, including reduction in flow of blood back to the heart because of loss of plasma from the blood system into the open area of the burn.

Up to now, a major means of combatting shock has been the administration of fluids, such as plasma and plasma-substitutes, in order to restore reduced blood volume.

Oshkosh Man to Address Kiwanis

Little Chute — Homer S. Fratt, chairman of the vocational guidance committee of the Oshkosh Lakeshore Kiwanis club, will speak on "How To Make A Million" at a meeting of the village Kiwanis at 6 p.m. Tuesday at Lamer's tearoom.

Robert Lace will serve as program chairman.

Record Enrollment Reported For Adult Classes at KVS

Kaukauna — Enrollment in adult classes at the Kaukauna Vocational school has reached an all time high with additional persons registering daily, according to Dominic Bordini, director.

In many cases, additional classes were organized to accommodate students on waiting lists. A very few openings remain in some classes, indicated Bordini.

General Improvement

Limited registrations are being accepted for blueprint reading, trigonometry, industrial electronics, machine shop, drafting, basic electricity, automotive electrical and automotive carburetion.

General improvement classes having openings include English and citizenship for new Americans, most of this course designed to help immigrants prepare for the naturalization examination. Others include investments and how to make them, typing II, intermediate and advanced typing.

Homemaking classes still reporting openings include millinery, slip covering, lampshades and draperies. Special classes limited to a few weeks will be held periodically throughout the school year.

Corps Mothers Club Meeting Postponed

Little Chute — The meeting of the Drum and Bugle corps Mothers club, scheduled this evening, has been postponed for one week as most of the members have been invited to attend an anniversary party.

Are You Nervous?

"Nervous tension" is a common complaint in our fast-moving world. Hustle, bustle, worry and just plain jitters take their toll in the form of numerous types of physical incoordination.

Good health results from recognition of a basic principle: proper regulation of body functions.

The all-important factor in regulation of body function is the nervous system. If an organ is not receiving the normal quantity of nerve energy, it cannot function normally. Nerve energy flows from the brain over nerve pathways to every cell in the body. When a nerve is impinged by a spinal misalignment (subluxation) an interference to normal flow of this vital nerve energy is created. As a consequence one or more organs of the body will not receive the correct amount of this energy, the particular organ affected depending on which nerves are impinged.

Your Chiropractor is scientifically trained to locate and adjust vertebral misalignments.

Former Appletonians Write

Frightening Florida Hurricane Caused Crazy, Beautiful Effects

A hurricane is frightening, but its results also are crazy and beautiful, report a former Appleton couple whose home in the Hillsboro Beach area of Pompano Beach, Fla., was struck by hurricane Donna.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kellogg wrote that a brave neighbor stayed in his apartment and clocked winds at 90 miles per hour.

"The sand from the beach was whipped up over the lawn on the ocean side exactly as snow is whipped around in a northern blizzard," the Kelloggs wrote. "All the shrubs and gardens were piled with sand. . . .When one first sees the results of the storm, it doesn't look too bad, but each day we can see more and more how the shrubs, flowers and trees are turning black from the beating of the wind and sands."

The Hillsboro fishing pier, which had extended many feet into the ocean and was a great spot for fishing enthusiasts, will cost $150,000 to rebuild, the Kelloggs reported.

The Kelloggs left their apartment at 9:30 p.m. Sept. 8, more than 24 hours before the evacuation order came.

"The winds were strong enough by then to have a dreadful and eerie whistle and my mental make-up would not have permitted me to have stayed longer in this apartment," Mrs. Kellogg recalls, "although our storm curiosity was great enough for us to return for a look-see almost immediately after the peak had passed."

Beautiful Fury

The ocean as they saw it was "a tremendous sight and really beautiful—if fury can be given such description."

To prepare for the hurricane, "blocks and blocks of stores were shuttered up with aluminum shutters. . .in some cases masking tape made crazy designs over large plate windows—and by gally, it held," the Kelloggs wrote.

A new church near the Kelloggs' home had a delicate white wrought iron steeple reaching about 200 feet in the sky, according to Mrs. Kellogg.

"It became a symbol to me during the storm," she explained. "I did not want it to be blown over and yet I could not imagine it could stand winds of such terrible velocity. Immediately after the worst winds had passed and we took a tour around the area, I actually said a prayer of thanks when I saw that beautiful steeple still reaching up to Heaven."

The Kelloggs said a hurricane "is really not as frightening and terrible" as a northern tornado, which comes almost without warning.

Speakers Hired For Assembly at Forest Junction

Forest Junction — The engagement of Dr. Vernon L. Farnham, Naperville, Ill., and Dr. Paul Price, Dayton, Ohio, as speakers for the 1961 summer assembly of the Eastern district of the Wisconsin conference of the Evangelical United Brethren church was announced at a meeting of the board of directors of Forest Assembly Grounds, Inc.

Dates for the 1961 gathering are Aug. 18 to 27. Farnham, one-time missionary to China, will be at the encampment from Aug. 18 to 21. Price completes the period from Aug. 21 to 27.

Conducting Friday evening's board meeting was the Rev. John W. Bartel, Appleton, Eastern district conference superintendent and president of the board of directors.

Robert Haese and Edward A. Rusch, both of Forest Junction, were reelected secretary and treasurer respectively.

Judge Fines Wife for Parking Violations

Des Moines, Iowa —(AP)— Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton Jr. fined his wife $30 for two overtime parking tickets and said:

"I hate to do this because it probably will come out of my own pocket."

Mrs. Glanton, an attorney, said she had not been in her office for eight weeks and had not received the notices.

Crawl to Freedom

Richmond, Va. —(AP)— Two convicts escaped from the state penitentiary here by crawling 430 feet through a new storm sewer line under construction. They entered through a manhole and emerged within 50 yards of a guard but obscured by undergrowth.

Rep. Byrnes to Speak at GOP Candidates Day

Kuehn, Zimmerman Guests at Rally, Torchlight Parade

Rep. John W. Byrnes, 8th District congressman, is expected to make a major policy address at an Outagamie County Republican party rally at 8:15 p. m. Thursday at the Lawrence College chapel.

The rally climaxes "candidates day", sponsored by Outagamie County GOP organizations.

Philip G. Kuehn, Republican candidate for governor; Secretary of State Robert Zimmerman, and George Thompson, Republican candidate for attorney general, also will be guests. Local Republican candidates also will be on hand.

The rally will be held after an all-day cavalcade of candidates throughout Outagamie County, a dinner at the American Legion Club, and a torchlight parade down College Ave.

Dinner, Rally

The cavalcade will include state, congressional, Outagamie County and Waupaca County GOP candidates. It will stop for a luncheon at the home of Mrs. John Spurr, New London.

Reservations for the 6:15 dinner at the Appleton American Legion Club are being taken at county Republican party headquarters in the Conway Hotel, according to Mrs. R. W. Shepherd, 926 E. College Ave., ticket chairman.

The dinner will be followed by a torchlight parade down College Ave. to the public rally at the chapel.

Night Burglar Enters Eight City Homes

Robberies Occur Early in Morning; Doors Not Locked

A rash of house thefts in Appleton, all apparently in the early hours of the morning, is perplexing Appleton police.

The prowler enters homes, usually unlocked, and his not so far injured anyone. In at least three cases, dogs in the homes have not barked to alert their owners. In one case, the prowler tied up the dog, then went out his theft.

The thefts began to be reported Friday for a total of eight by Sunday.

Method Same

Police do not know if the thefts are related, but the method is about the same in each case. Neenah last week had two house entries on E. Forest avenue in which some $125 was taken in the same way.

At the Rudy Konz home, 427 W. Prospect Ave., the prowler awoke Mrs. Konz by shining a flashlight about the house at 5 a. m. Saturday. She cried out, and the prowler fled. The thief took her purse, containing about $15, and the contents were found Saturday by a mailman at Elm and Fifth streets.

More Light

At the Lawrence Gosz home, 512 E. Summer St., the prowler about 5:35 shined a light in the face of Mrs. Gosz. She cried out and the man fled. Nothing apparently was taken.

Saturday, Edwin Hoersch told police that a man entered his home at 7 Pierce Ct., took $40 from his trousers and $7 from his wife's purse. The prowler tied up the family dog, which apparently did not bark.

Mrs. Joseph Garvey, 808 W. Front St., told police Sunday that a thief took $8 and an endorsed $3 check from her purse as she and the family dog slept.

Children Sleep

Robert Cotton, 1426 N. Meade St., told police that a prowler took about $27 from his wallet and his wife's purse sometime after 2:15 a.m. Sunday. The couple's two children and a family living upstairs were not disturbed during the burglary.

Dennis Bahcall, 1423 N. Union St., told police a thief sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning, probably after 3:30 a.m., took a $30 pin and $20 from two purses at his home. A child's pearl piece of jewelry also was missing, he said.

Mrs. George Krampien, 171 River drive, told police that sometime Friday morning a thief took $47 from two wallets in her home. The Krampien dog did not bark at the intruder.

Two Entries

In one case, a family moved into a new home and discovered an earlier entry. Friday they found the home had been re-entered, but nothing apparently was taken.

Total loot so far reported by victims is about $165 in cash.

Police Chief Walter J. Hendricks warned homeowners to keep their doors locked, because the thief in no case has forced entry.

Policeman's Car Wrecked

Youth's Auto Hits Squad; Second Driver Goes Into Ditch

A county policeman's car was badly damaged but he escaped injury about 1 a.m. today when a car banged into the rear of his squad car.

Patrolman Joseph Van den Oever said he was halted for a left turn at County Trunk S and N. Meade street when a car driven by Kenneth J. Frederickson, 18, Rt. 3, Appleton, struck his vehicle.

Some 25 minutes later, as Patrolman Stanley Arnold investigated the accident, a car driven by Allan D. Tiedt, 20, Rt. 3, Appleton, came upon the scene, skidded 153 feet in the ditch and hit a culvert.

Mrs. Virginia Robbins, 32, Green Bay, received a possible concussion and rib injuries when her car left Highway 41 about half a mile north of County Trunk E Sunday evening.

She was taken to Appleton Memorial hospital by Larry's ambulance.

Passed in Traffic

Patrolman Arnold said Mrs. Robbins passed in the face of oncoming traffic, forcing one car off on the road shoulder, then lost control of her car. She traveled about 150 feet out of control and the car flipped over.

In Appleton about 4:30 a.m., the steering gear of the car of Rogers M. Williams, 22, 1214 E. Glendale Ave., failed, causing him to hit the terrace at 100 E. Glendale.

He also made what probably were obscene statements to the girls, aged 10½, 11 and 6, although the girls are not clear on just what was said to them, police indicated.

Two of the girls were approached near Alicia park, one near her home, police said.

The molester has been tentatively identified from police identification photos, it was indicated.

State Accepts $750,000 in Indian Dispute

Federal Government Makes Offering in 103-Year Fight

Madison —(AP)— Wisconsin has accepted a $750,000 federal offer in settlement of a 103-year-old dispute over Indian lands in Ashland, Sawyer, Iron and Oneida counties.

The settlement of the historic case was announced Sunday by Atty. Gen. John W. Reynolds. He said the proceeds will be placed in the state school fund.

Parcels involved, designated as swamp and overflowed lands, were granted to Wisconsin in the 1850 swamplands act. They had passed into federal hands under terms of an 1842 treaty with the Lake Superior Chippewa Indians.

The slip that set off the drawn-out dispute came in 1954 when the federal government granted the same parcels to several Indian tribes. They were included in the newly-formed Lac du Flambeau, Bad River and Lac court oreilles reservations.

State offers to settle the controversy for as little as $250,000 were turned down prior to 1957. At that point an action was started in U. S. District Court in the District of Columbia.

When the court ruled in favor of the state, and the U. S. Court of Appeals a few months later refused to review the decision, federal officials began settlement negotiations.

Reynolds said a $1,631,700 settlement was nearly reached in 1935 when the secretary of the interior agreed on that figure provided the state assumed all future costs of Indiana education. However, congressional aporoval needed for the agreement was not obtained.

Nehru in Pakistan To Sign Water Treaty

Karachi, Pakistan —(AP)— Prime Minister Nehru of India arrived today to sign the Indus water treaty with Pakistan—a treaty made possible by a billion-dollar investment for peace by the World Bank and six of its members.

After the signing, Nehru will stay in Pakistan five days to talk with President Mohammad Ayub Khan about the Kashmir dispute and other problems between the two countries.

Ayub has expressed the hope the division of waters of the Indus Basin will lead to a settlement of other issues between the two countries. Nehru and Ayub were cheered as they rode together through the streets in an open car.

Reduction Expected in Sentence of U2 Pilot

Vienna, Austria —(AP)— Rumors in diplomatic circles today said Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will shortly announce a reduction of the sentence passed on U.S. U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers. The reports said the 10-year sentence on espionage charges would be reduced to five years.

Women's Best Years After 30, Says Actress

Thinks It's Foolish To Worry About Encroaching Age

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

Hollywood —(AP)— "One day I looked in the mirror and I saw some lines in my forehead," Lola Albright said. "I was aghast."

If the same thing has happened to you, ladies, you're over 30. But don't despair. Lola says the best is yet to come.

"I used to worry about encroaching age," she admitted. "Now I realize how foolish that was.

"The thirties are a wonderful period. I think a woman in her thirties is happier, better looking—yes, and sexier than a girl who is younger."

Admits Age

This statement carries Lola far out on a limb, but she's not averse to limb climbing, even at 36. She is unabashed about admitting her age, and that's part of the adjustment to the thirties.

"I think I'm much better adjusted to life," she observed. "Now I take everything as it comes.

"That's one reason I think women are more appealing after 30. They've lost that anxious air that a young girl has. Most women have become contented with their life.

Reigning Queens

"They also have more background and character with which to interest men. Unless they have failed to grow emotionally and mentally, as some do, women over 30 have more appeal as conversationalists."

On the matter of sexiness, Lola pointed to the reigning sex queens of films: Marilyn Monroe (32), Susan Hayward (41), Ava Gardner (37), Rita Hayworth (41).

Lola herself is enjoying a success that eluded her when she was a starlet type. She is a hit as Craig Stevens' sexy companion on the "Peter Gunn" TV show. She'll soon be seen in a new film, "Cold Wind in August," in which she plays a woman who has a tragic love affair with a boy many years younger.

Old Ledger Found To Contain Money

Topeka, Kan. —(AP)— An old account ledger has been among the children's playthings at the Donald Bolley home for several years

The boys, Mike, 11; Mark, 8, and Jim, 6, have mauled it, scrawled in it, and torn out pages

Saturday, one of them ripped off the cover, and out fell three $100 bills

"I don't remember where the book came from," Mrs Bolley said Sunday "I think the boys found it in some trash All the used pages were cut out and there was no name in it"

Mrs Bolley said a coin dealer offered $120 each for an 1882 gold certificate and a 1903 bill The third bill is an undated Federal Reserve note It will be cashed

4 New Series Open, None Outstanding

Shirley Temple's 'Land of Oz' Can't Compare With Old 'Wizard'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

New York —(AP)— Four new television series were launched over the weekend, but none did much to add interest to the new season.

There was, for instance, NBC's Shirley Temple Show. This one, quite obviously, is aimed directly at small children. But even so it's hard to figure out why the producers elected to start off with "The Land of Oz," when there's a fine motion picture called "The Wizard of Oz" available for broadcast again. Comparisons between the old movie and the new tape are inevitable, and the tape suffers by comparison. Shirley Temple played a dual role Sunday night, but even two Shirley Temples don't equal one Judy Garland.

Shirley Temple

Missing was the fine trick photography, the singing and dancing in the motion picture. On the credit side was Jonathan Winters, playing a villain with the tongue in cheek ferocity that undoubtedly delighted the very young.

Family Appeal

"National Velvet," which followed on the same channel, promises to be an attractive and warm story with the same strong family appeal of the Lassie series.

This one is the story of a little girl and her horse. So far, we only know that Velvet Brown, played by cute, little Lori Martin, has saved a chestnut stallion from the stockyards, and won a steeplechase riding him bare back. But it shows promise, a statement hard to make about many other new entries.

Then, also on NBC, came the "Tab Hunter Show." Until recently this was called "Bachelor at Large" and that pretty well sums up the plot. The pattern of the first show is embarrassingly reminiscent of the old "Bob Cummings Show" except that the gay blade is a cartoonist and his comical side kick is a playboy millionaire. You can imagine the complications these two are going to have with pretty girls each week. You can, in fact, almost write the scripts yourselves.

In addition, the man in charge of adding merry laughter to the sound track had a heavy hand with the canned hilarity. Even the mildest sallies were greeted with unlikely roars.

"Checkmate," an hour-long suspense series, made its debut on CBS Saturday night. This one is built around the idea of a team of investigators stopping crimes before they occur. The first episode concerned a woman who appealed to them to prevent her own murder. Either I'm seeing too many of these things or they're not being very subtle but I had the plot figured after the first five minutes. This one, however, is nicely produced and has some good performers. Anne Baxter was the first guest star.

The show has the usual assortment of detectives: a bearded Nero Wolfe sort of chap for those who like characters; the handsome, strong fellow for the older feminine viewer; and the young blonde, college boy type for the teen-age crowd.

The best viewing of the weekend was coverage of the United Nations and its surrounding excitement by NBC and CBS. CBS did a good job of handling live the arrival in New York of Fidel Castro, and NBC pulled the U.N. session together nicely in a program presided over by Frank McGee.

Ulcers Thrive on Over-Tense Nerves, Worry, Says Molner

By Joseph G. Molner, M. D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I read your column daily and enjoy it. I was interested in your lecture on stomach ulcers, as I was a victim of that for 15 years.

"Two years ago I had an operation for chronic duodenal ulcers with pyloric obstruction and had 70 per cent of my stomach removed.

Dr. Molner

"I was 60 years old at that time, and recovered beautifully. I have no ill effects now. I eat everything, only my portions are small and I don't have liquids except between meals. I,m doing swell.

"Is there a recurrence of ulcers and is it necessary for me to be more careful with my diet? I love fresh fruits and salads, and as I said, I eat everything. But I am worried about the ulcers coming back. What help can you give me? —C. B."

If we get down to cases—and why shouldn't we?—I think your letter will give more than it gets

We don't know what causes stomach ulcers—an ulcer being a sore, and a stomach ulcer being a sore in the stomach, and a duodenal ulcer being one in the duodenum which is adjacent to the stomach. We don't know what causes them—but we do know what irritates them and keeps them sore instead of letting them heal. Most of our minor or mild or moderate sores and woes tend to get better if we will give them a chance. The same for ulcers

We know that these ulcers can develop at any age—even from babyhood. We know that strongly-spiced foods, smoking, over-tense nerves, over-supply of digestive juices, over-active effort of the stomach, or lack of food in the stomach for the muscular activity to wrestle with—all tend to keep an ulcer active instead of letting it heal itself.

Control Factors

So our first rule is to control as best we can (or as best the patient can) these factors About four times in five, this works.

When it doesn't, we resort to stronger methods, one of which is surgery. That's what happened with you.

Now to get back to plain logic. Did this work with you? Yes. You eat everything. You don't have as much stomach (and-or duodenum) so you eat less at a time. You eat only what your curtailed digestive system can handle at one eating.

But within that limit you do very well.

Now let me go back to one of the problems involved with ulcers: Over-tense nerves.

How about you? You have been getting along nicely for two years—yet you are worrying over what might happen. For you, the best thing in the world is to follow the rules and to stop worrying.

I know it's easier to say than to do. But the truth is that you are an excellent example of a bad case of ulcers that has been cured. If only you'll relax and accept the good news, you have it made. I'd wager that the only problem your doctor is worrying about is how to keep you from worrying. Well, friend, it's a problem, isn't it?

Men Agree

"Dear Dr. Molner. I claim that monosodium glutamate (sold under trade names, to season food is tasteless—has no flavor of its own—but will enhance the tase of food you put it on. My wife disagrees. Who is right?—T. C."

All I can say, sir, is that I agree with you.

Enuresis is a distressing problem If your child has the habit, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper for a copy of my helpful booklet, "Enuresis—Ten Ways To Stop Bed-Wetting." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover handling.

2,000 Members of Wong Family Hold Reunion

San Francisco —(AP)— It was a typical family reunion — Wong style.

Some 2,000 members of America's biggest Chinese-American family got together in San Francisco Sunday. They represented 35,000 to 40,00 others bearing the ancient name of Wong

They met in a $100,000 building —the Wong family headquarters— in colorful Chinatown. It was designed by architect Paul Wong and built by contractor Jack Lee Wong.

Several thousand years ago, somewhere around Canton, the Wong family began. Nobody knows much about the man responsible for it all Family President Jack Wong called the members to order There were brief speeches by him, Eastern President George Wong and Western National Chairman Albert W. Wong.

On the agenda were such topics as the Western ways of the younger generation, family disputes, the Wong scholarship program and family public relations.

The men — elders representing 15 regions of the United States— met in the fourth-floor auditorium The room was shrouded by silk draperies—a gift from the Wongs of Hong Kong. Firecrackers, gongs and Chinese musicians combined to chase away evil spirits.

The women met two floors below. They heard the proceedings by loudspeakers. At the last reunion, in Boston three years ago, the ladies were barred altogether.

Telegrams were received from such political dignitaries as California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown and the Democratic presidential nominee, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

San Francisco attorney Zeppelin Wong (he got the name because a zeppelin was flying over when he was born) kept U.S. politics out of the family gathering.

A Democratic leader himself, Zeppelin explained that Kennedy's telegram wouldn't be read because he didn't want to take advantage of the Republican Wongs.

"We didn't want to read Kennedy's," Zeppelin said, "because we didn't get a telegram from Vice President Nixon"

State Labor Board Hit by Democrats

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison — A sensitive state agency that has remained under control of Republicans because of Republican hold-over commissioners has become the target of the Democratic state administration.

A new attack upon one of the veteran members of the state labor relations board by key Democratic spokesmen is being interpreted as pressure for his resignation, to pave the way for a replacement by Democratic Gov. Gaylord Nelson.

According to the administration criticism, Commissioner John Fitzgibbon, who has directed the labor agency's Milwaukee office for many years, is not performing adequately and is not accounting for a fair volume of the work of the board, which has two other members.

Ordered to Appear

Recently the state board of government operations, controlled by legislative Democrats, ordered Fitzgibbon to appear at its next session in December to give an account of his performance.

Sen. W. A. Draheim of Neenah, a Republican, dissented. Assemblyman David Blanchard of Rock county, Republican minority leader in the assembly, asserted that Democrats are interested in "political propaganda." But Sen. Lynn Stalbaum of Racine, Democrat, retorted that the labor board is asking for additional staff to handle its work and that the board has an obligation to scrutinize the performance of its present staff.

Fitzgibbon is an elderly survivor of the Republican regime of nearly 20 years ago. He was reappointed three years ago by Republican Gov. Vernon W. Thomson.

The labor board is one of the few principal regulatory agencies into which Democratic Gov. Nelson has not yet been able to introduce his own men. A year ago he reappointed Commissioner Morris Slavney, Madison, and named him chairman, but Slavney owed his original selection to a Republican governor.

The third member of the board, who served for many years as its chairman, is L. E. Gooding, a former Republican leader in Fond du Lac. He has been ill lately.

Gooding has served on the board since the governorship of the late Julius P. Heil more than 20 years ago and during most of his career has been a target of organized labor.

The labor department's work has been expanding lately because of changes in the national labor laws which have restored some of the "no man's land" jurisdiction to state agencies.

The board of government operations three months ago asked Joe E. Nusbaum, commissioner of administration, to make an analysis of individual labor board member's' work. Nusbaum reported that Fitzgibbon's record is thin in contrast to that of his colleagues. The Milwaukee commissioner has not written an opinion in a contested case for five years, he said.

Your Problems

Family Loses Sleep Over Boss's Drunken Phone Calls

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband's boss is a telephone drunk. He phones us at all hours of the night and wakes up the entire family.

Ann Landers

The boss usually wants to sing a few songs and then he puts some other drunks on the line — stray characters he meets up with at bars.

The calls come on Friday and Saturday nights and we are sick of having our sleep interrupted. My husband is afraid to mention it because the boss is a very formal person when he's sober.

Can you suggest a solution?—Dark Circles

Dear Dark: The telephone company can install either a jack-type phone which can be plugged out, or a bell control which will shut off the bell by merely flicking a lever. The cost is nominal considering what a night's sleep is worth to a family.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our daughter is 16 and running wild. She paints herself up like a woman of the streets and yesterday she went downtown in the top of a bikini bathing suit and a skirt. She called it a midriff. I said it was a shameless get-up but she ignored me.

Dolly sleeps till noon then goes over to a girl friend's house for the day. She never helps me with the housework, and I can't even depend on her to stay with the younger children so I can take a day off.

We don't know who her boy friends are because they pick her up elsewhere. Her dad told her if she gets into trouble he'll put her out of the house. She talks smart to us and I'm worried sick that she'll come to no good. What can I do?—Weary and Worried

Dear Weary: Dolly didn't get this way overnight. In the early years when she should have been accepting responsibilities she was running off—and getting away with it. Now the chickens are coming home to roost.

Contact a guidance center and get outside help. You need an outside professional who can reach her. She's been out of your ear-shot for years.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My widowed father will be 67 in December. In May he started to take out a girl who is at least 40 years his junior. She is divorced, has two children and is a notorious gold-digger. She is driving Dad's big car and wearing my mother's diamond earrings, which makes my brother and me sick.

We don't want anything from Dad. We just hate to see him make a fool of himself.

The little snip has been charging clothes to Dad's account and he has taken her and her children shopping. She dates another fellow secretly (he is her own age).

My brother and I talked to Dad and his answer was "I'm old enough to know what I'm doing. This girl could be my little Bluebird of Paradise." What do you think, Ann?—Worried Kids

Dear Kids: If your father married a girl who is 40 years his junior the only part of that bluebird of paradise he'll see is the bill.

From your report he is not receptive to your advice, so having spoken your piece, say no more.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Unwanted Pets Do Not Merit Cruel Treatment

BY ANGELO PATRI

This is the season when unwanted pets are dropped from passing cars on the roads besides farms and promising looking houses in the country.

Someone without heart or conscience dropped a cat about to have kittens near our house. When she appeared, we set a basket and food for her in a sheltered place. The food disappeared but she did not use the basket. This went on for a few days until one morning we found a tiny kitten on the doormat. We took care of it. Next day the cat brought two more. Now she accepted the basket and all was well.

No Room

We have a cat and a dog, so this family could not be accommodated here nor can the others that will appear from time to time. We do what we can and then send them to the Humane society where they are cared for until homes can be found for them or they are destroyed.

The worst side of this, and there is no good side, is the heartlessness and cruelty that tosses unwanted, dependent creatures on the roadsides and into the woods to fare for themselves. These creatures have lived in homes with people and are unable to care for themselves in an unfriendly world. Once people have sheltered and fed them, they are dependent upon people. And people fail them.

We should teach all children to be kind to all living creatures to respect their places in nature's plan and their value to people. This ought to be part of every school child's learning and experience. Children are by nature animal lovers and if this love is cultivated in school and home, the children encouraged to have and care for pets, such cruelty as evidenced every fall by the abandonment of pets, would not appear.

Think About It

The humane societies do their best in a difficult situation. We do not do enough to support them with the money they need. Nor do we do enough to strengthen public opinion in regard to the need for their work. True enough, taxes and funds for everything under the sun cramp our giving, but anyone can squeeze out 10 cents—more a dollar? Children can be encouraged to give a few cents? All that is needed is a thought about it.

Anyone who has once owned a dog, knew his unselfish devotion and steadfast loyalty, can send in a contribution in his memory? These memorial monies are put to good use. They can help those who are helping needy animals. All that is needed is a thought followed by a deed.

Today's Etiquette

BY LOUISE DAVIS

BAFFLED MOTHER:

Our son has told us that he and his fiancee have investigated and that according to proper protocol, the bridegroom's parents pay for the flowers, tuxedo rentals and for hotel expenses for the best man and ushers. We have two daughters and can't conceive of asking for help when they are married. I have been invited to a shower for my son's fiancee and it will be held in another city 300 miles away. My son says emphatically that I am expected to attend. I do want to send a gift but I don't want to drive such a distance just to attend a shower. Am I obligated to go?

Miss Davis

Louise Davis Answers:

Your son and his fiancee have been misinformed. The expense of the wedding and reception are the entire responsibility of the bride's parents. Your son may get his bride's corsage, but he should have no other obligations. The best man and ushers pay for their own tuxedo rental and lodging. You are classified as guests and certainly shouldn't be expected to defray the expenses. If you wish to entertain for the couple a day or so before the wedding, that is up to you. The bridegroom's parents often offer to give the rehearsal dinner, but there is nothing that says that you must. It is optional as to whether you accept or decline the invitation to the shower in the other city. If you decline, there is no necessity for giving the reason. You just "regret that you are unable to accept."

Sammy Davis Jr., May Britt Plan October Nuptial

Las Vegas, Nev. —(AP)— Oct. 16 will be the wedding date of Negro entertainer Sammy Davis, Jr., and Swedish actress May Britt.

Davis told the Associated Press Sunday night the ceremony may be held at his Los Angeles home. He said Miss Britt's parents will attend, along with his entire family, including his father and stepmother, his grandmother and two sisters.

"As entertainers," Davis said, "we do not want to run away from the press." But he added he would rather not say for certain where the wedding will take place.

Davis, 34, is appearing at a hotel here. Both he and Miss Britt, 26, have previous marriages.

Check Floor For Cleanness

A good test to check if your kitchen floor is really free of grime and grit, or merely looks that way, is to walk across it in your bare feet. Some flooring materials tend to obscure abrasive grit because of their softness and dark colors. When considering a new floor, keep in mind that hard surfacing materials like ceramic tile can be cleaned completely with a brush or a wipe. Grit can't stick or lodge itself on its smooth, hard surface.

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

Fashion Afoot

The long fluid line of fall fashions demands an elegant sweep of leg. And to fill the order, new shoes and stockings go all out.

Shoes are designed with a toe, more tapered than ever, and with heels that soar higher. Thus they become a dramatic climax for the elongated silhouette of clothing.

There is still another virtue in the diminishing toe. Its long line slenderizes a wide foot, and gives an air of delicacy to the average foot.

Of course a damsel with an overlong foot cannot but question the effect of a shoe with a long-long toe. Should she wear it to the possible detriment of her foot? Should she forego it to the certain detriment of her fashions? Actually no sacrifice is necessary.

For flattery's sake, numberless slim-toed shoes are designed with details that greatly foreshorten the foot. Those include bows and buckles across the vamp, asymmetrical stitching and pleated overlays on the toe.

To further fulfill the flowing line of fashion, stockings reflect every nuance of costume colors. This variety allows for blending the shade of a stocking with that of a costume, a scheme that is most complimentary to either a heavy or a trim leg.

As a boon to thin legs, stocking shades also permit subtle contrasts to a costume—jet brown stockings with a black dress, or green onyx stockings with a brown suit. And for the fashion adventuress, the contrast approach is a mark of fashion one-upsmanship.

If your loveliness problem is thin, shapless legs, send for my leaflet, "More Curve for the Leg-line." It shows how to build up contours with spot-increasing exercise. The leaflet also includes your ideal leg measurements, and tips on a graceful stance as well as flattering footwear. For your copy, write to me in care of this newspaper, enclosing 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply.

Even Good Luck Takes Planning

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Sometimes you can make your contract only if a key card is favorably located. But even this luck still depends on good planning.

West opens the queen of clubs, and you let him hold the first trick. He continues, and you win in dummy with the king.

Opening lead — ♣Q

You lead a low diamond from the dummy, and West wins with the king. He leads another club, forcing out your last stopper.

You lead another diamond, holding your breath. If West has the ace of diamonds, he will beat you with the rest of the clubs. Fortunately for you, East has to win the trick.

East returns a spade for lack of anything better to do.

Missing King

By this time you should be wondering who has the missing king of hearts. You have eight sure tricks and need an additional heart trick to make the contract.

If West has the king of hearts, he will gain the lead and run his clubs to defeat the contract. You must therefore assume that East has the king of hearts. How can you make your contract if this is the case?

Run the rest of the diamonds, coming down to three hearts and two spades in each hand. East must save the same number of cards in these two suits, for if he saves only two hearts you can cash the ace and duck one heart to him, thus setting up dummy's queen.

If you judge that East has saved three hearts, cash the king and then the ace of spades. Next lead a low heart toward dummy. Finesse dummy's eight of hearts to make East win the trick. Now East must lead away from the king of hearts, and you let the trick run to dummy's queen.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player bids two clubs. You hold: S-10 7 6 4 2, H-K 9 7 6, D-A 8, C- 5 3. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two spades. You have good value for this free raise, but you are not quite strong enough to make a more encouraging bid. If partner speaks again, you will make sure of getting to game.

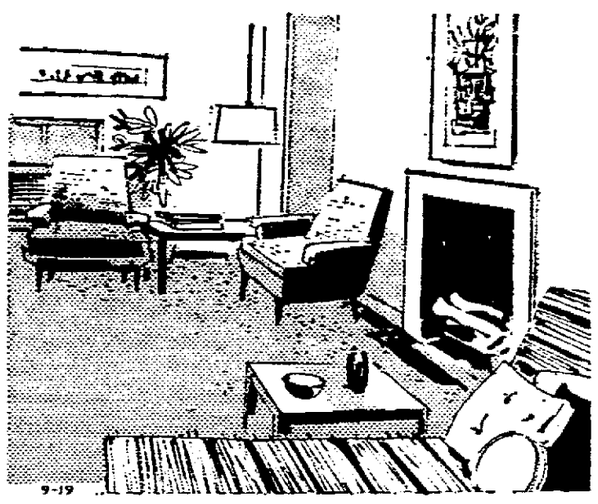
Designing Woman

BY ELIZABETH HILLYER

Now about a new arrangement of furniture in front of the fireplace? An idea that's different from the usual facing sofas and chairs can do wonders for the style of the room. The grouping sketched breaks up the typical huddle and is wide and open to create a more spacious look for the room. It also places the furniture in better relationship to the opposite wall.

A low and somewhat lengthy table is equally useful to two chairs and the hanging lamp has both a practical light spread and a way of gently emphasizing the grouping. Balancing the weight of this table and chair arrangement is a chaise longue, just the piece of furniture to be lazy on near the fireplace. The choise longue is too good an idea to hide in bedrooms only, and has emerged in tailored versions as appropriate as sofas for the living room and family room.



Make New Arrangements in Front of Fireplace

Mrs. D. P. "Will you help me to decide on a color for two chairs to be placed in front of a picture window and opposite a toast-colored sectional sofa? The walls and ceiling are light sandalwood, really a beige. The carpet is tweed in light brown tones and the draperies are beige with slubs of white with gold threads. Would persimmon or orange be a good choice for the chairs, as I'd like to give the room more color? Also, will you make suggestions for the color of the wood for new end tables and for the color of lamps? The toast of the sofa seems to have a certain amount of salmon color in it."

The persimmon color, or an orange that tends toward coral, is a good choice for the chairs. Any medium or dark wood that is definitely brown rather than grayed will fit into the room attractively, and lamps that are not beside the bright chairs might introduce another color—a carefully chosen green, for example, for the bases. If the lamps are close to the chairs, bases might be brass or metallic gold color, and with any in your room colors. But the yellow room and would be attractive in yourr oom colors. But the yellow isn't needed. Soft shadings of blue or brown from light to dark, or both with more of one color than the other would produce the best effect unless the room is very informal.

Headboard Hint

Color, like convenience, can't be stopped. Once a homemaker gets used to it and learns to live with it, there's no end to where it will appear. A fairly recent example in the bedroom is the headboard, which formerly yielded to the bedspread in the use of color. But not anymore. The modern trend to make the headboard a colorful focal point of interest has been helped along by the development in this country of new shapes and shades of traditional materials like ceramic tile which can't fade and can be cleaned with a wipe.

State Colleges Have Larger Enrollments

Nusbaum Advises Expansion in Relation to Population Trends

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — The state college at Oshkosh has retained first rank in the state college system in new fall enrollment. But there are signs of future challenge from the college at Whitewater because of the rapid population growth in southern Wisconsin.

The Oshkosh school has increased its lead as the largest, according to nearly complete figures for the fall term. Its tentative total is 2,325 students. The growth from last year was about 10 per cent.

But the Whitewater school boasts a total of 2,000 students, and its growth from last year is 18 per cent.

Future Growth

In long term planning significance, the freshman figures show there is an enormous base for future growth at the schools, as at the University of Wisconsin and its branches.

New freshman total at the colleges is more than 5,800, about equal to the new freshmen enrolled in the universities at Madison and Milwaukee and at eight extension centers.

Gains scored by Oshkosh, Whitewater and Eau Claire colleges this year attracted special notice in statehouse circles, because of recent discussions for expansion of educational facilities to meet the demand for decentralization of instruction. The Eau Claire school this year rose about 100 in total enrollment, to 1,815.

Joe E. Nusbaum, commissioner of administration, recently told the building commission it ought to study the advisability of planning campus expansion in relation to population trends. He specifically mentioned the Fox River Valley, Southeastern and Northwestern Wisconsin.

Dr. Peale Admits It May Have Been Bad to Join Group

New York —(AP)— The Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale says it may have been unwise for him to align himself with a group of conservative Protestants, but he doesn't feel he did anything wrong

Dr. Peale said in a sermon yesterday at Marble Collegiate (Reformed) Church, of which he is pastor, that his association with the group known as Citizens for Religious Freedom "might be questionable from the standpoint of wisdom."

"I've never been too bright anyway," he said wryly. His congregation laughed sympathetically.

The group of 150 Protestants, most of whose names have been withheld by the organization, met recently in Washington. One session, led part of the time by Dr. Peale, released a statement which expressed doubt that a Roman Catholic President could resist pressures from the Vatican.

Dr. Peale was accused of injecting religion into the political campaign. Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, is a Roman Catholic. Dr. Peale is supporting Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican nominee, a Quaker.

Dr. Peale resigned from the organization and said he had no part in drawing up the statement.

Spiritual Evaluation

Services Will Herald Jewish New Year 5721

The three Appleton Jewish synagogues are planning special services for Wednesday and Thursday in observance of the Jewish New Year ushering in the year 5721 according to the Jewish lunar calendar.

Sunset Wednesday will mark the beginning of Rosh Hashonah, a Hebrew term meaning the "head of the year." This day is the start of a 10-day period of introspection and spiritual self - evaluation. Every Jew is asked to review his behavior and to live up to the highest ethical standards in the year ahead.

In synagogues throughout the world, as in Appleton, religious services will emphasize prayers, music and sermons of repentance and resolve.

Dr. Simon Cohen, of Hebrew Union college, Cincinnati, Ohio, will conduct services at the Masonic temple for Temple Zion. Services are scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday and 10 a.m. Thursday.

Beth Israel congregation will observe the Jewish New Year with services at 6 p.m. Wednesday, 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Thursday and 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Friday.

Services at Moses Montefiore congregation are set for 7 and 8 p.m. Wednesday, with an English sermon at 8 p.m. :at 7:30, 10:15 and 10:35 a.m. and 7 p.m. Thursday and Friday, with a shofar service added Friday at 10 a.m.

On Rosh Hashonah, observed for one day by reform Jews and for two days by members of the conservative and orthodox branches, the shofar or ram's horn is sounded in the synagogue as a call to conscience.

In many Jewish homes on Rosh Hashonah eve, the dinner meal includes a bit of bread dipped into honey — a symbol of hope for a sweet year. The familiar high holy day greeting is "L'shanah Tovah," meaning "for a good year."

The 10 Days of Penitence reach a climax Sept. 30 when "Yon Kippur," the day of atonement, begins at sunset and continues until sunset the following day.

Negroes Win Fight To Use Public Library

Greenville, S. C. —(AP)— Negroes have won their fight to use Greenville's public library.

City and library fficials have announced it will reopen on an integrated basis today. It was closed two weeks ago after seven Negro students sued for what they called discrimination solely on the basis of race in the use of a facility supported by public tax money

U. S. Dist. Judge C. C. Wyche dismissed the case, ruling that with the closing there was no question for him to decide. He left the door open for a new suit if the library were reopened on a segregated basis.

South Carolina Has Democrats for Nixon

Columbia, S. C. —(AP)— Sponsors of the "South Carolina Democrats for Nixon and Lodge" say it will bring together Democrats "who believe that sound, conservative and safe government would be served" by the election of the Republican presidential ticket.

Two residents of Columbia, A. Mason Gibbes, an automobile dealer, and Albert W. Watson, a former Democratic state legislator, said Sunday a statewide steering committee is being organized. Gibbes was an unsuccessful candidate for Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor in 1956.

Winneconne Church Reaches 75-Year Mark

St. Paul's Lutheran Congregation Holds Celebration Over Weekend

Winneconne — Three years after the arrival of the first Germans of Lutheran extraction at Winneconne in 1869 came the first Lutheran service held here.

This service, attended by 50 to 60 persons on the third Sunday afternoon of each month, led to the formation of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, predecessor of St. Paul's Lutheran church which observed its 75th anniversary last weekend.

St. Paul's Lutheran church was formed in a merger of two congregations through the efforts of the Rev. Ernest Haese who was called to be the pastor and served the church until 1889.

During the early years St. John's church here was served from Bloomfield on the Wolf river for two years and for a while the basement of the Baptist church served as its meeting place

One minister asked to serve the church was not of the Wisconsin synod so new ministers were sought. The small church of 19 voting members voted in 1881 to put up a small frame church building and were served by an Oshkosh pastor who conducted the worship on the fourth Sunday afternoon of each months.

After several years the church became affiliated with St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church in the town of Winchester and Pastor Haese of that township was called as pastor. Both congregations were dissolved and the new church became organized as St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church.

Expand Building

The early building was expanded and services held every two weeks with the church chairman, a Mr. L. Bretzke, reading a sermon every other week.

The young church continued to grow until sawmills began moving out of Winneconne and with them went several of the families.

The church began gaining in members by the turn of the century and at its 25th anniversary in 1910 began a building fund which led to the construction in 1914 of a new edifice which has served the congregation since.

Offerings received at the 75th anniversary services are dedicated to the building fund of the church to be used for construction of an educational wing. An architect has been hired to design the new wing, cost of which earlier was estimated at $85,000.

One of the outstanding members of the church was the Rev. Otto Hoyer who served the church for 42 years until retiring in 1947. Succeeding him were the late Rev. Harold Grunwald who was drowned in 1956 and the Rev. H. A. Kahrs who is now serving as pastor.

Jack Braley To Face 7 Charges

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — Nine of 16 counts on misconduct in office and misappropriation of funds against Jack B. Braley, former manager of the Brown County Arena, were dismissed in Civil Court by Judge Raymond J. Rahr this morning.

Braley will face trial on seven counts which charge misappropriation of over $1,747.02 in county funds. Judge Rahr set the jury trial for 9 a.m. Oct. 4. Bond was continued at $5,000.

The court dismissed the nine counts, all relating to alleged false reports on parttime employment of Braley's son, Richard, at the arena on the motion of Dist. Atty. Alexander R. Grant.

Grant said the state "definitely cannot meet our burden of proof" in prosecuting charges of "false and fraudulent" paychecks made out to the younger Braley for parttime employment.

Two of the remaining counts against the elder Braley concern charges of obtaining "a dishonest advantage for himself" through using county funds to purchase hams as Christmas presents for arena employes and buying cigars from county funds for his personal use.

Marshfield Columbus Fullback Jim Weister couldn't escape the grasp of Adrian Martin (11), St. Mary defensive halfback, after moving for a short gain in Sunday's game at Butte des Morts field. The Zephyrs moving up are Dick Peterson (74) and Paul Mix (54). St. Mary scored in the second and fourth periods in recording a 12-7 win.

Zephyrs Tip Marshfield For 2nd Win

4th Period; Entire Contest Score Deciding Touchdown in Played in Continuous Rain

Menasha — Biting off three and four yards at a crack, St. Mary scored single touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters to defeat Marshfield Columbus, 12-7, Sunday afternoon at Butte des Morts field.

Jensen

Mix

Umbrellas and rain coats again were the prescribed attire, for it rained continuously through the contest, making ball handling precarious and passing almost impossible.

The victory was St. Mary's second straight by one touchdown and left it the only unbeaten team of the three Twin City varsity squads.

After the first quarter, when it had the ball only for one series of plays, St. Mary pretty well dominated the game. The Zephyrs saw Columbus score in the first period and convert. They scored in the second frame but missed the extra point attempt and were in arrears until making the deciding six points five plays deep into the last quarter.

The Menashans gained 141 yards on the ground, the longest going for 38 yards and the second best 10. Most of it came in three and 4-yard chunks. Columbus' longest was a 17-yarder and it came in the first half when the Dons picked up most of their yardage. Only one of the visitors' first downs came in the last two periods.

Marshfield wound up with 97 yards on the ground. It completed three of five passes for a plus 10 yards. The longest went for eight and another lost a yard. The Zephyrs only tried two and made good on one for six yards. There were a total of 13 fumbles and six penalties — all 5-yarders.

Jensen Carries

Workhorse in the Zephyr attack was fullback Bob Jensen, who in recent weeks had been hampered with an injury. At one stretch in the Zephyrs' fourth period TD drive, Jensen carried eight straight times.

St. Mary took the opening kickoff, failed to make a first down and punted to the Columbus 30. The Dons moved the ball all the way down the field to score on the second last play of the quarter.

They got a big break when, with fourth and two on the Zephyr 49, St. Mary's Paul Mix blocked a punt but the Menashans were detected offside and penalized five yards, giving the visitors the first down. John Kundinger eventually plunged over from the three and Jim Wein rushed for the extra point.

Becker Scores

St. Mary could only get the next kickoff back to its 17 but then got down to work. Mike Roemer took the ball to the 28 in three cracks. Bill Becker got 10 more in two tries. Jensen moved to the St. Mary 47 on a quick opener went 38 yards to the Marshfield 15. He carried to the 10 and eight in two more attempts and put on a fine fake as quarterback Tony Rechner pitched to Becker who went around his left end for the last eight yards. Pete Snyder missed the kick.

Columbus made two first downs, moving to the St. Mary 30 after the next series but on fourth down and one to go, Mix broke through to throw quarter Pat Johnson for a loss. The Dons didn't get any deeper into St. Mary territory the rest of the afternoon.

Recovers Fumble

Early in the third period Adrian Martin returned a poor Columbus punt from the Columbus 40 to the 26 but when the series of plays was completed the Zephyrs were back on the 35.

Mix recovered a fumble on the Dons' 35 to start the winning TD drive in eight straight plays. Jensen took the ball from the 35 to the three. Twice Rechner fumbled the pass from center but the second time, he moved ahead enough for a first down. He then sneaked over from the two. Snyder's kick was wide.

Later St. Mary recovered a Marshfield fumble on its 35 and took it to the 13 where they fumbled the ball back to the Dons. The losers made a first down but fumbled again. St. Mary's Larry Johnson recovering. After four plays, the Zephyrs had a net loss of a yard and were forced to surrender the ball. Two plays later Johnson's pass was pilfered by Rechner and St. Mary stalled out the last few seconds.

Macs Stop Fond du Lac; Take Third in Tourney

Jim Meyer Hurls 2-Hitter in 2-0 Victory at Green Bay; Winners Score in Initial Inning

Menasha — The Menasha Macs put a successful finish to their baseball season, blanking Fond du Lac 2-0 at Green Bay Sunday afternoon. The victory give the Menashans the third place trophy in the Northeastern Wisconsin Amateur tournament.

Thus the Macs closed the season exactly as they began it — with a victory. Their record for the season is a sharp 22 wins, five losses and one tie.

The entire contest — which was called after five innings — was played in the rain. Tourney officials sought to postpone the contest but the Macs insisted that it be played because it would be difficult to get the team together another weekend.

Jim Meyer halted the losers on two hits, a 1-baser by Al White in fourth and another by Romy Swiss in the fifth. Meyer walked four and struck out seven.

Macs Get 4 Hits

The Macs were limited to four hits by Bob Pittler and Jim Milligan.

They scored in the first inning when "Butch" Konetzke and "Bud" Koehnke drew walks and Jack Konetzke and Clem Massey had successive singles.

"Butch" Konetzke singled in the second but, after stealing second base, was stranded. The other hit was a 1-baser by Bob Karisny in the fourth.

The Menashans loaded the bases on walks in the third inning but were unable to tally. They were accorded a total of eight free passes and their hitters fanned four times.

The Macs beat Sturgeon Bay in their initial tourney start but lost to Little Chute - Kimberly in the semis. Fondy was beaten by Waupaca county in Sunday's final semi-final game.

L-C-Kimberly and Waupaca county will square off for the championship Wednesday night.

The Menasha team was feted at a dinner at the Eagles club Sunday evening. Individual trophies earned by the club for winning the Fox River Valley league championship were distributed.

FVCC Football Teams Divide 4 Non-League Tilts

Menasha — Fox River Valley conference football teams divided four non-conference starts Saturday and Sunday, giving them a weekend record of 2-3.

Winners were St. Mary (12-7 over Marshfield Columbus) and Little Chute St. John (14-7 over Kimberly). Losers were Fond du Lac Springs (19-6 to Ripon High school) and De Pere Pennings (7-6 to Stevens Point Pacelli) Marinette Central bowed to Peshtigo 27-6 Thursday night.

St. Mary and St. John both have two straight wins, Pennings has a 1-1 record. Springs 0-2 and Marinette Central, three straight defeats.

M-E Gridders Win Only 2 of 8 Non-Loop Games

Menasha — Mid-Eastern Conference football teams won only two of seven non-league contests over the weekend giving them a mediocre overall chart of 2-6.

The only successful teams were Clintonville, which blanked Waupaca 44-0 and Kaukauna, winner by 21-14 over Sheboygan North.

Losers were Kimberly (14-7 to Little Chute St. John), Neenah (12-9 to Fond du Lac), Menasha (13-0 to Appleton), New London (20-12 to Waupun) and Two Rivers (21-6 to Manitowoc). Shawano lost to D. C. Everest of Schofield 30-7 a week ago.

Circuit teams won only one of four games from Fox River Valley Conference opponents. Last year, Mid-East gridders had a 3-5 record against non-league opposition while the previous fall they posted 1-7.

Neenah Drops 12-0 Test to Cardinals

Winners Complete 11 of 22 Passes, 2 for Touchdowns; First Blanking Since 1951

Fond du Lac — Fond du Lac's vaunted aerial game was all it was cracked up to be, accounting for both touchdowns in a 12-0 win over Neenah here Saturday night.

Fahrenkrug

The loss sent prep football historians digging into their record books for it hasn't been very often in the last decade that Neenah has lost a football game.

For the records, it was Neenah's fifth loss since the close of the 1951 season, (the first since the Menasha game of 1950), the initial opening game setback since it was beaten, 33-0, by West Green Bay in 1951 and the first shutout since that blanking.

The passing combination of Jack Nussbaum to Al Esther accounted for both Cardinal scores. The first came with 1:05 left in the first half and went for 32 yards. The second was a 9-yarder with 3:02 left in the ball game.

The Rockets weren't able to generate any consistent drive. Their deepest penetration was to the 23 and came early in the contest. They recovered a fumble on the Cardinal 38 on the third play of the first quarter. Bill Fahrenkrug made it to the 32 in two plays and Winn Zimmerman carried to the 23 where he fumbled and the hosts recovered.

162 Yards Passing

Fond du Lac, with Nussbaum mainly pitching to Esther, Jon Brown and Ken Wilderman, completed 11 of 22 pass attempts for 162 yards. The Cardinals added 108 on the ground.

Neenah made 95 yards by rushing and connected on one pass in four attempts for nine yards. The winners had an 11-4 first down advantage.

Fahrenkrug was Neenah's best ground gainer, picking up 59 yards in 15 attempts. Zimmerman collected 27 and George Goetz picked up 24. Jim Flaherty, a bruising fullback, chalked up 41 yards in 13 cracks for the Cardinals.

Start TD Drive

Fondy started its initial TD drive in the second period after returning a punt to the Neenah 4. Nussbaum passed to Brown to the 36. Another pitch fell incomplete and Flaherty picked up a first down on the 32.

The Rockets just missed on a pass interception which, if grabbed, might have meant a score but on the next play Esther and Nussbaum collaborated on a 32-yard scoring play. Wilderman missed the extra point.

A staunch Neenah defense stopped a Fond du Lac march on the half yard line in the fourth period but a few plays later the Rockets lost the ball on a fumble and the Cardinals went all the way.

Cardinals Halted

Taking over on the Rocket 46 after a punt, Matt Karls and Wilderman carried to the 30. A pass from Wilderman to Karls moved the ball to the 19. Flaherty blasted to the eight for a first down but four plays later the victors were halted on the half yard line.

Fahrenkrug carried four times to the 20 where Dick Bender, 225 pound tackle, recovered a Rocket bobble. Two plays later Nussbaum connected to Esther for a 9-yard score. Wilderman again missed the conversion kick.

Fond du Lac was on the Neenah 35 when the game ended.

First Courses Set For Early in 1961, Instructor Hired

Oshkosh — The first courses in astronomy will be offered early in 1961 at Oshkosh State College, according to Dr. James F. Duncan, dean of the college.

John H. Evans has been hired as instructor of astronomy and astro-physics. The first courses to be offered will be descriptive astronomy, astro-physics and mathematics of astronomy.

The courses will utilize Buckstaff Observatory, the third largest observatory in Wisconsin, of which the college is part-owner. Ralph N. Buckstaff, Oshkosh, gave part-ownership of the observatory to the college two years ago, with the understanding that the college will eventually receive full ownership. Buckstaff is the director of the 3-dome observatory.

Evans received his Bachelor of Science degree with majors in physics and mathematics in 1951 from Hamline University. His Master of Arts degree with a mathematics emphasis was received in 1956 from the University of California at Los Angeles.

He is presently working on his doctoral paper at Indiana where he has completed all necessary course work and where his major emphasis has been on astronomy.

In addition to teaching assignments, Evans will be engaged in research. His particular interest is the study of solar disturbances and variable stars.

Evans is married and the father of four children.

Entry was made by breaking a window on the side of the tavern after first using a mop handle to break the outside light and darken the area. A rear screen door was pushed in but the inner door was locked and entry could not be gained that way, police said.

The guns were two 12-gauge shotguns, a 16-gauge automatic shotgun and a 22 caliber rifle with scope.

Willie Tasby's home run and a two-run single by Lu Clinton were the big blows for the Red Sox against Washington.

Dick Williams' two-run homer nullified Cleveland's two-hit pitching in the first game but Walt Bond knocked in three runs with a homer and double as the Tribe squared matters with the A's in the second game.

Tom Wiesner Stars in UW Scrimmage

Scores Three TDs As Regulars Jolt Reserves, 61-14

Madison —(AP)— Wisconsin's football team has been picked as a last-place finisher in the Big Ten, but Coach Milt Bruhn thinks the Badgers might wind up better than that.

His forecasts merit watching. So far in the training season he's been right every time. The proof was furnished Saturday in a full scale scrimmage under game conditions.

The White squad, compased of the first three units, scored from every direction and crushed the reserves 61-14.

Before the clash, Bruhn had said, "We'll have to get most of the job done on offense. We won't be able to hold teams to one or two touchdowns as we did in the past. Heck, we can't even hold our reserves to less than two."

After Saturday's action, the coach said, "We learned a few things but we don't know yet what we will do against real competition." Then he promised, "We're going to work and fight to prove we're not a last-place team."

"The fighting starts this Saturday when the Badgers, the defending Big Ten champions, open the 1960 season in a non-conference meeting with Stanford in California.

The leading scorer was veteran fullback Tom Wiesner who scored three touchdowns, one on a run of 98 yards and the others on plunges. Wiesner had running help from left half Merritt Norvell who had been out for a week with a leg injury. He got off on one 70-yard romp with a punt.

Ron Miller continued the quarterback standout, completing 4 of 9 passes, running for a touchdown and intercepting two others. One of Miller's tosses went to end Pat Richter for a touchdown. Richter scored again after taking a pass from Jim Bakken.

Another quarterback candidate, John Fabry, scored twice on sneaks and Neil Fleming plunged four yards for a touchdown.

Warriors Reveal Fine Ground Game in Win

Milwaukee —(AP)— Marquette's football team unveiled a fine running attack in opening its season Saturday night with a 23-13 victory over Villanova.

However, Coach Lisle Blackbourn indicated there will be plenty of work on defense before the Warriors take on College of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif., next weekend.

The Warriors pushed over a touchdown in each of the first two periods but wilted in the third in the face of a Wildcat attack that yielded a pair of tallies. Marquette then braced and ran up nine points and its fourth straight triumph. Marquette ended the 1959 season with three consecutive victories.

Blackbourn said the game was ideal for his purpose.

"It showed up our errors at a time when they weren't fatal," he said. "And we have time to work on them before we run into a game where they can really hurt us."

"Too many boys took the wrong lanes, made wrong moves and were out of position, putting a heavy burden on the rest of the defense," he added. "We nd to build up a dfnse tradition."

His pass receivers didn't do as well as expected, he said, "but that part will work out and the offense will be okay."

After recovering a fumble on its 32 Marquette drove downfield. Halfback Dave Theisen, who wound up with 107 yards in 13 carries, went over from the eight. In the second period Marquette drove 99 yards. Fullback Mike Koehler and Theisen hammered away before Koehler burst into the end zon from th one.

Villanova rallid after the second half kickoff. The Wildcats paraded 60 yards in 13 plays and fullback Lou Rettino score fdrom the one. Villanova continued on the prowl and worked 80 yards upfield to send Rettino over again from the three.

Marquette then braced and picked up a safety. Two minutes later Denny Ferriter intercepted a pass on the 20 and ran to the two. Bob Collins scored after Mike Shea failed twice in line plunges.

kickoff. Sevastopol scored in seven plays with halfback Jim Moeller crashing over right tackle from seven yards out. Gary Weber booted the extra point.

Sevastopol made it 13-0 later in the stanza after recovering a Pete Werner fumble, on its own 35. Halfback Hank Gilson rambled 38 yards for the tally.

Xavier came back in the second stanza with Wiesner sneaking over from one yard out after an 80-yard march. Soph fullback Tom Peeters crashed off left tackle for the extra point.

The hosts made it 20-7 in the third segment when quarterback Ray Brey connected with end Jim Antonissen for eight yards and the TD after Xavier lost the ball on a fumble on its own 24.

Weber Converts

Weber again booted the conversion.

Later in the quarter, Xavier started a drive on its own 31 and moved all the way with Peeters hitting over tackle for the final yard. In the final stanza, Xavier moved in from 49 yards out. Peeters going the last yard into the end zone, off left tackle. Peeters crashed over right tackle for the tying point.

Peeters, who had a tremendous game, was the Xavier workhouse. He had a TD run of 60 yards called back because of a clipping penalty in the third quarter.

Kelly Kornely, guard, and Bill Helein, tackle, were Xavier standouts on defense. Whitlinger turned in fine work in the Hawk secondary. Wiesner went practically all the way at quarterback and did a solid job.

Fraser, Hard Capture U.S. Tennis Crowns

Top Laver, Bueno, Respectively, in Final Matches

Forest Hills, N. Y. —(AP)— Darlene Hard, the new U.S. women's tennis champion, gasped in horror today when it was suggested that she was the master of Maria Bueno.

In the 10 times the two have met, Darlene, a bouncy pre-medical student from Montebello, Calif., has scored eight victories including a 6-3, 10-12, 5-4 decision in the final of the National Championships Saturday.

"That's true," said Darlene, "but most of my victories over Maria were scored when she was just a beginner. She has most of the big ones."

Maria, 20-year-old Brazilian did win two big ones. She beat Darlene in the Wimbledon final last year, then a couple of months later eliminated her in the semi-final of the Nationals.

The 6,000-odd spectators in the stadium at the West Side Tennis Club were astounded at the ease that Darlene tucked the title away. Only in the second set did Maria make a real fight of it, and although she won it, her back was to the wall all the time.

The men's final ran true to form with defending champion Neale Fraser crushing Rod Laver, his Australian Davis Cup teammate, 6-4, 6-4, 10-8.

It marked the fourth year in the last five that two Aussies have fought it out for the U. S. title. But it was the first time ever that two lefthanders got to the final.

a key first down on the 5 yard stripe by Vandenberg.

Kimberly's touchdown was set up by a 10 yard pass to big end Tom Rooyakkers. This put the ball on the 32 and the 15 yard penalty on the next play set the pigskin on the 17. Roovers pass to Minten was perfect and he stepped across the line untouched.

Chuters Off-Side

On the first Papermakers extra point try, the Chuters were offside. The second attempt was fumbled and Minton picked it up and ran it over.

The Chuters threatened again in the fourth period when Vandenberg took in a pass and was stopped on the 10 for a 15 yard gain. A penalty set the Dutchmen back to the 25 and three straight pass attempts failed.

On defense, the Chuter line was outstanding with Dennis Mahn, Clayton Baumgart, Daxe Simon and Jim Van Asten leading the way.

Time Out with Mike Drew

It looks as though Appleton's Stu Locklin is calling it a career in professional baseball.

The 32-year - old Locklin, one of the top all-around athletes Appleton has ever produced and one of a trio of great-athlete brothers, is now a full-time teacher at Appleton's Madison Junior High school.

Stu left the Minneapolis Millers of the class AAA American association at the end of August to return here for the teachers' meetings preceding the start of school. He batted close to .300 in a utility role for the Millers.

Plans to Referee

Actually, Stu had planned to quit pro baseball earlier. But, he started the 1960 campaign since it looked—this spring—as if the now-dead Continental league might be coming into existence next summer. The first baseman-outfielder felt he had more major league baseball in him than he had the opportunity to display during a couple of brief trials with the Cleveland Indians.

The soft-spoken athlete plans to referee high school and junior high football games this fall. He may coach the Lawrence college freshman basketball team again this winter and still is on the part-time staff of an Appleton real estate and life insurance agency.

Among the Fox Cities—area new students at Lawrence this fall are several outstanding athletes.

Guy Booth, of Shawano, was an all-Mid-Eastern conference first team offensive end and second team defensive halfback last fall. Booth also earned all-conference honorable mention in basketball. Neenah's Gary Bayer, was all-ME first team defensive end in 1959.

Bonduel's Steve Nault has been called "one of the finest all-around athletes I've had in 17 years here," by Bonduel High Coach Rush Niles. The 5-10, 160-pound Nault quarterbacked Bonduel to a 6-2 grid record last fall and is a triple-threat man—passer, runner and kicker.

He's the highest career scorer in the school's basketball history and was a 3-year regular in baseball.

Waupaca's Steve Hansen, 5-8, 160, was a 3-year regular in football and basketball for the Comets and owns the school 1-game basketball scoring record. Both are "A" students who were attracted to Lawrence at least partly because feminine relatives went there. In Nault's case it was his mother, in Hansen's it was an aunt.

Appleton's Jon Keckonen, another Vike frosh, was one of the top netters on the AHS squad last spring.

Fox Cities Foxes Business Manager Bob Willis phoned Chicago Wednesday to congratulate 1959 Foxes Hector Maestri and "Zorro" Versalles on being in the majors. (Both were in the windy city with the Washington Senators, having joined the Nats at the finish of their minor league seasons).

"You need a pitcher next year!" asked Maestri, a Cuban.

"Who do you have in mind?" Willis questioned back.

"Me," answered Hector.

"You!" Willis exclaimed. "You're in the majors."

"Yes, but I love Appleton," answered Hector. "The finest people in the world live there."

Maestri may accompany Versalles here at the conclusion of the season to visit friends, Willis reports. Hector was recently voted the most valuable player on the strong Class A, Charlotte club, for which he received a wrist watch.

Ray Youngdahl, the 1960 Foxes center fielder until hospitalized with a mid-season knee injury, is still in Appleton receiving treatments from team physician Fred Marshall. (Fred, not Victor as reported in last week's column, is the Foxes' "Sawbones.") Ray, who plans to play in the Arizona Winter league, will be in this area another week or so.

Willis says the Foxes lost a total of nine home dates because of weather conditions this season, about four more than last year and six more than in 1958. Bob will shortly undergo an operation on his elbow. He's having bone chips removed before the start of the 1960-61 basketball season. Willis will referee about 40 high school and college games.

Before the conclusion of the 1960 Three-I season league managers were asked to rate the circuit umpires. Three-I veteran Jerry Carleton, reportedly, got just about the best rating with Frank Herkal second.

"In my opinion," says Willis, a former minor league (class A) arbiter, "no one in pro baseball gives you more hustle than (Oshkosh's) Dutch Rennert," a Three-I ump for the past several seasons.

Why You Should Buy a Famous Free Arm Viking Sewing Machine, Now...This Fall!

FIVE BIG REASONS (plus fun)! Gene Kloes says: "I think if I can do it, you can do it Better"!

1. Makes you a capable seamstress immediately, even if you never have sewn a stitch in your life. The VIKING versatility permits you to immediately make professional type button holes, without attachments, insert zippers, install hidden pockets, applique, blind hem garments, use 2 and 3 needles to embroider pretty patterns on table linens and bed linens.

2. The trouble-freeness of the VIKING enables you to sew without the constant worry whether your sewing machine is going to thread lock. Its simplicity of operation enables even a child to operate.

3. THE VIKING FREE ARM permits you to sew tubular repair work in a jiffy. In just a fraction of the time you now spend on your flat surface machines, you can insert any size "patch repair" on any size garment and sew on all four sides of patch. (See patch) COMPANIES that do not have a free arm will tell you this is impossible. (LET US SHOW YOU HOW POSSIBLE IT IS WITH A VIKING).

4. The two speed transmission (possessed only by VIKING) offers slow speed to those who are learning; and produces the power for heavy sewing. A VIKING WILL DRIVE THROUGH MORE HEAVY MATERIAL THAN ANY OTHER SEWING MACHINE ON THE MARKET.

5. The free arm converts into a flat service with a simple adjustment, whether you want it portable or cabinet. AND IT COSTS NO MORE.

Yanks Beat Orioles Twice, Reduce Magic Number to 7

New York First Baseman Bill Skowron covers up while going into second base as the Orioles' Ron Hansen, shortstop, takes a throw from right field in the second inning of the opener of a doubleheader in Yankee Stadium Sunday. Skowron swatted a long hit to right and went to second when the Orioles' Al Pilarcik bobbled the ball, momentarily. The Yankees won the doubleheader to pad their lead over the Orioles to four games.

Braves Win, 7 to 1, but Fall Half-Game Farther Behind

Adcock and Bruton Homer Against Phils

Milwaukee—(AP)—The Milwaukee Braves posted a neat, crisp victory over the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday in soggy weather but lost ground in their now desperate bid for the National League pennant.

Despite the 7 - 1 triumph — forged on the four-hit pitching of Joey Jay and homers by Joe Adcock and Billy Bruton—the third-place Braves fell 6½ games behind the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates who swept a doubleheader from Cincinnati. The second - place St. Louis Cardinals also won and stayed a half game in front of Milwaukee.

The Braves rested today and had a chance to dry out before opening a two-game series here with the Reds on Tuesday. Rain fell through most of Sunday's game and action was finally suspended after the Braves pushed over two runs in the eighth. After a 30-minutes wait, the game was called.

Right-hander Jay, a 25-year-old former bonus baby, was a good pitcher Sunday, stopping the Phils on three singles and Johnny Callison's homer in the third. Jay fanned 10 and walked only two in winning his fourth in a row and ninth against seven defeats. The nine victories is a season high for Jay. His previous best was seven, posted two years ago.

The loser was Art Mahaffey who failed to last two innings. Dallas Green and Dick Farrell shared the finishingup chore.

Bruton opened the game with his ninth homer. Before the inning was out another run scored on a two-base error by former Brave Joe Koppe on a roller by Del Crandall, an infield out and Hank Aaron's sacrifice fly.

With two out in the second, Jay singled and Bruton, Crandall and Ed Mathews did the same, sending in two more runs. That was all for Mahaffey.

Adcock smashed his 24th homer.

Double Win Hikes Lead To 4 Games

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Suddenly the New York Yankees are in a position for "magic number" talk about pennant clinching instead of a nail-biting percentage lead.

The Yanks rose to the occasion to put down the Baltimore challenge over the weekend, sweeping all four games to break the American League race wide open.

Friday afternoon they led the Orioles by one percentage point. Today they sport a four-game lead over both Baltimore and Chicago.

The Yanks have 11 games to play. Baltimore and Chicago each have nine. Any combination of seven Yank victories or Oriole and White Sox defeats would nail it down.

12-Hit Attack

There still is danger ahead for Manager Casey Stengel whose Yanks have found Washington their most troublesome rival. Five of their last 11 games are with the Senators, the other six with always tough Boston.

After beating Baltimore 7-3 with a slashing 12 hit attack in Sunday's opener, the Yanks came up with a gilt-edged pitching job by Ralph Terry in the 2-0 second game.

Terry had a perfect game going until he walked Brooks Robinson on a 3-2 count with two out in the seventh. Ronnie Hansen broke the no-hit spell by driving Terry's first pitch in the eighth over third base for a single. Jackie Brandt collected the other hit, a single with two out in the ninth.

Chicago missed a chance to take over second place all by itself. The White Sox whipped up a 15-hit attack, drubbing Detroit in the first game 8-4 with Nellie Fox chipping in three singles. The Tigers eked out a 7-6 margin in the second game.

Boston trimmed Washington 3-1 on a five-hit job by Bill Monbouquette and Mike Fornieles. Despite two-hit pitching by Cleveland's Bobby Locke and Don Newcombe, Kansas City edged the Tribe in the first game 3-2. Cleveland won the second 9-2 behind Barry Latman.

A crowd of 53,876 waited 53 minutes for the rain to let up at Yankee Stadium and then sat through a drizzle most of the afternoon. They saw the Yanks score a third-inning knockout of Jack Fisher who shut them out in their last meeting. They thrilled with Terry's perfect game bid in the second game in which both Yank runs were driven in by sacrifice flys.

Winston-Salem, N.C. — It's a shame the Packers' clean sweep of their 6-game non-league season doesn't count . . . but this much was gained. The Bays will go into the 1960 league season with sharp teeth and on the run.

The Packers looked ready, willing and able to meet the Bears in the process of decking the Redskins, 41 to 7, in the Piedmont bowl here Saturday night.

Full Speed

Green Bay went full speed for the first three quarters and then tapered off in the fourth frame, once punting on fourth down with a yard to go on the Redskin 39-yard line.

The Packers thus finished as the only unbeaten team along the "Grapefruit" trail, averaging 29.1 points against their foes' 11.8. The next bit of action, of course, finds Green Bay

The Packers received a dreadful chill and a pleasant surprise before an estimated 3,000 fans.

Marvie (The Tank) McGee received a pair of knees in the back while catching a 15-yard pass and rolling on the ground on the first play of the second half. He picked up some damaged ribs and stayed out the rest of the game. Before the hurt he caught three for 55 yards and one touchdown.

Provides Surprise

Lamar McHan provided the surprise. The burly quarterback never figured to perform due to a leg injury but he came off the bench to play the second and fourth quarters — plus the last play of the first period. McHan presided for 17 points — all in the second frame, and completed five out of 11 passes for 90 yards and one TD.

There was another surprise — Larry Hickman, the 220-pound victories in their first two games. Sevastopol—which handed Xavier its only loss last season—is now 1-0-1 on the campaign. Sevastopol is a 4-year school — as are most other foes of 3-year school Xavier.

Battle Back

The hosts piled up a 13-0 first quarter lead before the younger and smaller Hawks got rolling and cut the deficit to 13-7 in the second stanza. Sevastopol owned a 20-7 lead late in the third period but the Hawks battled back again for their 20-20 tie and were on the move again, in Sevastopol territory, when the game ended.

Xavier had a 14-7 edge in first downs and a 225-151 bulge in total yardage.

The hosts stole the ball from Xavier quarterback Dick Wiesner at the Xavier 34 on the opening

St. John Registers 14-7 Grid Victory Over Papermakers

Geurts' 25-Yard Scoring Pass To Diedrich Snaps Deadlock

BY JIM HARP
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Kimberly — A machine-like ground attack and a pin-point aerial in the third period gave Little Chute St. John High a 14-7 victory over rival Kimberly here Saturday night.

Pounding continually at the Kimberly forward wall, the Chuters rolled up 218 yards on the ground as they controlled the ball throughout most of the game. The Papermakers were limited to 75 yards rushing and 46 passing for a total of 121.

Geurts Diedrich

85 Aerial Yards

St. John's aerial attack, which accounted for the winning touchdown, picked up 85 yards on four completions in nine attempts.

Both teams scored in the second period. Coach Bill Fitzpatrick's Dutchmen marched 53 yards in a drive that was capped by Roy Vandenberg's 1-foot blast into the end zone. Vandenberg also ran the extra point over.

The Papermakers counted minutes later after a 15-yard penalty put them in position in the Chuter 17. Tom Roovers tossed an aerial to Dave Minten for the TD and Minten ran the point over.

The winning touchdown came midway in the third period. A St. John drive bogged down on the Kimberly 25. On fourth down, quarterback Jim Geurts dropped back and lofted an aerial to Jerome Diedrich who had gotten behind two Kimberly defenders. Diedrich gathered it in on the 8 and waltzed over. Bob Verkuilen plunged over for the point.

Several Long Gainers

St. John rolled up 18 first downs in the game, while the Papermakers had seven. The running of Vandenberg and Joe Verkuilen was the strong point of the Chuter attack. Geurts also reeled off several long gainers through the line on sneaks.

Coach Jim Nirschl's gridders had a little trouble shaking the jitters in the opening minutes. It was the first game for the Papermakers, while the Chuters had an earlie warmup against St. Joseph Kenosha. On the opening kickoff, Jerome Diedrich nearly broke away for a touchdown but was hauled down from behind on the 47 yard line.

In the first period the Dutchmen drove to the Kimberly 10 following the kickoff. A penalty set them back to the 15 and when Geurts went back to pass he was hit and fumbled with the Papermakres recovering.

The 53-yard touchdown march of St. John was highlighted by a 13 yard run by Joe Verkuilen and

Ghost '11' Rallies To Triumph, 21-14

Bruce Bay Scores Tying and Winning TDs Against North

Sheboygan — Kaukauna's Galloping Ghosts twice came from behind on long striking runs, then pounded out a third touchdown to wrest a 21 to 14 victory from a stubborn Sheboygan North High school in their traditional grid opener at Urban field Saturday afternoon.

Roovers Minten Bay

The game was predominantly an offensive one with each team piling up sizable yardage; each was plagued with three costly fumbles, however, that played vital roles in the final outcome. Of the two elevens, the young Ghosts were probably the most opportunistic, striking for two quick touchdowns in the third quarter after making the most of breaks.

Bay Intercepts

Trailing, 14-7, midway through the third period, Kaukauna was seemingly in danger of yielding another touchdown after a fumble had given North the ball on the 34. Immediately after the Raiders had kicked off following their second TD, North had the ball on the Kaukauna 16 on fourth down when rushing Ghost linemen harried quarterback Bill Dwyre, he lobbed the ball into the right flat—and fleet Bruce Bay speared it to go racing 85 yards upfield for an interception touchdown that tied it all up.

Three plays after Kaukauna's kickoff, North fumbled away the ball in midfield — and five plays later, Bay again was prancing into the end zone, this time on a 21 yard scamper off a wide pitchout. That was the game-buster.

North had opened the game sensationally with Al Pilsl breaking away for 60 yards on the first play from scrimmage. Kaukauna then drove 58 yards before stalling on the Raider 8-yard line — and not too long after had a touchdown run by Jim

Wisconsin Lutheran Topples FVL, 25-0, in Football Opener

Fox Valley Lutheran's football Foxes today were preparing for their 1960 home opener—against Northwestern Preps Saturday — after dropping their road mainguard against Wisconsin Lutheran of Milwaukee, 25-0, last Saturday night.

The winners had a 235-70 edge in total yardage Saturday. Fullback Phil Bollhagen a 6-4, 185-pounder, blasted for 88 yards in 12 carries and one touchdown.

Last half Danny Biltz tallied three TDs.

The winners grabbed a 12-0 lead in the first quarter. On the third play of the game, Bollhagen blasted 56 yards off tackle for the score after the winners had taken over on their own 48. The extra point try was wide.

The next time Wisconsin Lutheran gained possession—taking over after a punt on the Foxes 40—Biltz scampered 35 yards around left end for the score.

A short FVL punt gave Wisconsin Lutherran the ball on the Foxes' 20 in the second period. Biltz went the final 11 yards over right tackle. Farrington's kick was good.

The winners' final drive went 65 yards in the third stanza with Biltz moving around right end for five yards and the TD.

The Foxes' closest penetration was to the Wisconsin Lutheran 30 late in the game.

Ron Old was the Foxes' burliest worker with 18 carriers, for just 26 yards. Arvin Klemp gained 18 yards in eight rushes and Jim Rolloff picked up 19 in seven tries.

Frank Scores Most Runs

Ward, Montgomery Win Individual Titles

Frank Montgomery joined Fox Cities teammate Pete Ward as an individual pace-maker for the 1960 Three-I league season.

Montgomery led the league in runs scored, with 111. Only one behind was another Fox, Saverine (with 110), and Ward made it a 3-way battle, with 108.

Ward, as previously announced, won the batting championship by seven points. Ward hit at a .345 mark, according to the Des Moines' George Williams finished second at .338.

Topeka's Billy Joe Dashner batted in the most runs, 108, and tied Lincoln's Manly "Shot" Johnston for the homer title, at 23.

The champion Foxes had two of the only four players to hit the 100 mark in RBIs. Ward was second in the circuit, with 105, and John "Boog" Powell was fourth, with 100. Williams drove in 101.

Topeka's Doug Kassay was the stolen-base leader, with 90. Montgomery and teammate Bob Saverine were among the leaders, with 36 and 33, respectively.

Hank Fischer, of Cedar Rapids, was the official earned-run leader among pitchers with a 2.01 mark (for 193 innings). The Foxes' Pat Gillick was just shy of the 140-inning minimum needed to win it. Gillick had a dazzling 1.91 mark for 132 innings before being transferred to Vancouver.

Fischer also led in strikeouts, with 217.

Lincoln's Ron Woods won the most games, 17, and worked the most innings, 211. The Foxes' Dean Chance was second in innings pitched, with 207.

Arne Thorsland led the Foxes in victories, with 13, and in strikeouts, with 180. Ward hit the most Fox Cities doubles, 34; Saverine set the pace in triples, 11; and Powell hit the most homers, 13.

Des Moines edged the Foxes for team batting honors, .285 to .281. The Foxes finished third in fielding (.980), behind Green Bay's .981 and Sioux City's .980.

Ernie Vossler Wins Tacoma Tourney By One Stroke

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — A young man disgusted with his game a week ago and ready to take a vacation from golf was out of the doldrums and $3,500 richer today after winning the $25,000 Tacoma Open tournament.

He is Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., and he fattened his bank accounted by chopping 12 strokes off par to score 272 in four 18-hole rounds at the par-71, 6,980-yard Fircrest Golf Course.

Vossler didn't have a round poorer than 69 and when he came romping in with a 68 Sunday it gave him a one-stroke edge over Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass. Two strokes farther back at 275 were Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., and Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La.

That $25,000 was divided among 35 golfers and the worst score in the crowd was 284 — even par. The pre-tourney favorite, Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., was far down the list with a 281.

U. S. Davis Cup Team Post Win Over Venezuela

CLEVELAND (AP)—With a victory over Venezuela safely tucked away, America's Davis Cup youngsters were only two matches away today from a crack at Australia's champions.

The Philippines, Eastern Zone champions, and Italy's European victors still stand in America's path—but the U. S. and Australia have reached the challenge round every year since 1938 and are favored to meet again.

Earl Buchholz and Chuck McKinley, both of St. Louis wrapped up the American Zone title Sunday as they defeated Venezuela's Ivo Pimentel and Marcos Gamboa in the doubles, 6-4, 6-1, 7-5.

Bucs Win Twice, Lead by 6 Games With 11 Remaining

Vern Law, Ernie Broglio Join Spahn in 20-Victory Circle

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roll out the barrel you Pirate fans. The fighting Bucs are practically in. Only another baseball miracle can rob Pittsburgh of its first National League pennant since 1927.

With 11 games to go, Danny Murtaugh's Pirates led by six full games over St. Louis and 6½ over Milwaukee. The Cardinals have 13 to play, the Braves only 10. The "magic number" is seven.

Vern Law and Vinegar Bend Mizell did the strong arm jobs Sunday that gave the Pirates a doubleheader sweep over Cincinnati 5-3 and 1-0. For Law it was victory No. 20 on the fourth try. Mizell, the ex-Cardinal, chimed in with a neat three-hit shutout for his 12th triumph.

The Cards also won, edging San Francisco 4-3 as Ernie Broglio joined Law and Milwaukee's Warren Spahn as 20-game winners. Milwaukee thumped Philadelphia 7-1 on Joey Jay's four-hitter and homers by Bill Bruton and Joe Adcock. The game was called in the bottom of the eighth by rain.

Chicago hit three homers in a five-run sixth inning and hung a 5-2 defeat on Los Angeles. The defeat left the defending champion Dodgers mathematically eliminated from anything better than a tie.

Don Hoak was the big man for the Pirates at Cincinnati. The fiery third baseman drove in two decisive runs in the opener and scored the only run o the second game on Dick Schofield's double after hitting a double off Bob Purkey.

Dick Stuart and Hoak hit home runs in the first game. The only Cincy runs were homers by Willie Jones and Frank Robinson.

Mizell, acquired from St. Louis with a 1-3 record, boosted his season performance to 12-8 with the three-hitter. Old Vinegar Bend had a stormy moment in the eighth when umpire Stan Landes called a ball for a 3-2 count on Roy McMillan. Mizell threw his glove on the ground and jawed with the ump. On the next pitch he got McMillan on a fly ball.

Broglio had beaten every other club in the league but the Giants who traded him to St. Louis last year. He became the Cards' first 20-game winner since Harvey Haddix in 1953. Stan Musial drove in two Card runs and Ken Boyer and Daryl Spencer each knocked in one to beat Mike McCormick.

in the sixth. In the eighth, Al Dark led off with a single and Adcock boomed a triplet o the bullpen fence. The big first baseman scored on a wild pitch just before the umpires called time.

Outside of Callison's homer, Jay had trouble only in the fourth. Tony Gonzales singled with one out and Pancho Herrera was hit by a pitch. But Jay fanned Jim Coker and Jim Woods to end the inning.

Ghosts Rally For 21-14 Win

Steger nullified on a penalty. Three minutes before the half ended, however Steger raced 49 yards for the tying TD.

Kaukauna fumbled on the first play after the second half began and in three plays, North's Jerry Laack was scooting 39 yards for a TD that, with Dwyre's second dropkick, made it 14-7. Then came Kaukauna's fumble. North's threatening assault — and suddenly the interception that changed the picture so hurriedly.

Vike Regulars Top Second Team, 36-0

Four Backs Score Touchdowns In Game-Type Scrimmage

BY JOHN PALSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

The Lawrence college first team ran to an impressive 36-0 victory over the second unit in a game-type football scrimmage last Saturday afternoon.

Each of the regular backs — Jim Schulze, Bob Landis, Mike Ulwelling and Fred Flom—scored at least once as the Blues flashed a balanced, sometimes wide-open attack in preparation for this Saturday's opening game at Knox.

Schulze tallied twice—on a 6-yard run and on a 20-yard pass from Landis.

Ulwelling Goes 67

Other touchdowns came on a flashy, 67-yard scamper by Ulwelling, a 20-yard shot up the middle by Flom and a 1-foot sneak by Landis.

Schulze ran twice for 2-point PAT's and passed once to Joe Lamers for another conversion. No PAT kicks were attempted since the goal posts weren't up.

The starting line for the Blue team consisted of ends Lamers and Bill Meyer, tackles Bob Smith and John Dunning, guards Pete Thomas and Chris Todd and center Tom Schinabeck.

What made the victory over the Whites even more noteworthy was that the second team: (1) had the services of regulars Landis and Flom on offense because of injuries; (2) had several other gridders who are pressing for first string jobs; and (3) played for keeps and made the No 1 unit work for everything it got.

Thomas, Just Hurt

Gary Just, promising sophomore quarterback, sustained a knee-ligament injury in the opening minutes. Thomas, one of the outstanding Vikes in pre-season workouts, came up with an ankle sprain late in the first quarter. Both players are good bets to be ready for Saturday's game.

Neenah's Dave Thomsen, who had been pressing Flom for the first-string fullback position, was held out of the scrimmage because of a hip hurt suffered earlier in the week.

The second team never got inside the Blue 35 as the first string kept putting the defensive pressure on whenever a threat developed.

The Blues drove 63 yards in their first crack at the ball, with a 26-yard Landis-to-Flom pass the biggest gainer. The second TD drive went 53 yards. The halftime score read 16-0.

Ulwelling blitzed the Whites' right end for his 67-yard 6-pointer in the third quarter. The pair of 20-yard scoring plays were unfolded in the final period.

Sophomore Flom, a 175-pound workhorse as a ball carrier, blocker and pass receiver for both units, was one of the day's standouts.

Schulze, a 1959 all-Midwest conference player, was as elusive and versatile as ever.

Landis, a junior, totaled about 10 completions for both units in his best passing performance as a Vike Lamers, showing ever-increasing potential as a receiver, made several nifty catches.

Sophomore Howie Hamann was the Whites' best pass catcher, reeling in a couple of 11-yarders. Cary Wickland showed good speed at halfback. Sophomore lineman Dick Brostrom went all the way in his first full day of practice.

Packers Finish Undefeated in Exhibition Play

fullback who made his first Packer showing an impressive one. He picked up 40 yards in eight trips.

Bart Starr started and fired three TD passes in completing 10 passes in 16 attempts for 127 yards. He worked 43, 45 and 63-yard touchdown drives.

Starr's best thrust came after the Redskins' scored their only TD to cut the Packer lead to 34-7. Starting on their own 37, the Packers had the TD back in seven plays, Starr hurling to Steve Meilinger from five yards out for the payoff.

Tets Every Weapon

The Packers rolled up 373 yards, including 156 on the ground and 217 in the air. They tested every offensive weapon, seven players figuring in pass catching and seven rushing. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung retired from rushing after the first few minutes of the second quarter and Hickman. Paul Winslow and Tom Moore continued the onslaught.

Lew Carpenter played all over the place, finally replacing the injured McGee at the split end. Carpenter caught two TD passes, one a spectacular one-handed snare of a 37-yard toss from McHan in the second quarter. He grabbed an 8-yard bullet shot from Starr for six in the third period.

The Packer defense held the Redskins to 77 yards rushing, 10 first downs and 108 yards in the air. Fifty-two of those aerial yards came on Washington's only TD, a perfectly-timed screen pass from M. C. Reynolds to Don Bosseler.

Spearheads Defense

Dapper Dan Currie spearheaded the defense, intercepting a pass and just missing a touchdown runback and recovering a fumble. The Bay defense showed its teeth when the Redskins reached the Bay 13 in the fourth quarter.

From that point, Bill Quinlan downed Reynolds for an 8-yard loss. Eagle Day came in to pass and Hank Jordan nailed him back another eight yards. On third down, Dick James tried a pass off a run but Currie smeared him another eight yards. Day passed on fourth down and Currie almost intercepted as the Bays took over on downs.

The Packers got their hands on the ball seven times in the first half and turned in "scores" on five occasions for a 27-0 edge at halftime. Hornung scored 15 of those points with a touchdown, two field goals (46 and 17 yards) and two extra points.

Denver Wins, Leads AFL's Western Race

Van Brocklin Passes Philadelphia to Exhibition Win Over Baltimore

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Patient Frank Filchock, a builder of champions at 43, has molded the unheralded Denver Broncos into a potent pro football aggregation with title aspirations in the Western Division of the fledgling American League.

Undaunted while his charges were pushed around in losing all five pre-season exhibitions, Filchock concentrated on providing the Denver club wiah a semblance of cohesion and balance by deftly analyzing his personnel, making the proper shifts and teaching his wing T offense.

With two games gone in the young AFL season, Filchock's Broncos have moved into first place in the west with an unblemished record after a 27-21 come-from-behind triumph over the Buffalo Bills Sunday.

Johnny Pyeatt's 33-yard run with an intercepted pass for a fourth quarter touchdown won it for Denver and Filchock, who brewed his coaching formula in the Canadian leagues where his teams finished in the playoffs eight of nine years.

Increased Attendance

A native of Grindstone Gulch, Pa., Filchock played pro ball for the Washington Redskins and New York Giants, and now has placed his future with the AFL which drew increased attendance in its second week of operation.

Over 15,000 turned out to see the Broncos and Bills and 20,156 were on hand as Houston's Oilers riddled the vaunted Los Angeles Chargers 38-28. Another 19,200 saw the Boston Patriots edge the New York Titans 28-24 on the final play of a Saturday night thriller.

The National League—set to inaugurate its 41st season Friday night—wound up the exhibition season with the Green Bay Packers completing a 6-0 slate by walloping winless Washington 41-7 as Bart Starr passed for three touchdowns.

In other pre-season windups, Norm Van Brocklin pitched Philadelphia to a 35-21 victory over defending champion Baltimore. Bobby Mitchell went 10 years for the deciding TD in Cleveland's 14-10 triumph over Detroit and St. Louis beat San Francisco 24-17.

Denver trailed Buffalo 13-6 at halftime before quarterback Frank Tripucka passed the Broncos into the lead with touchdown tosses of 8 and 3 yards to J. W. Brodnax and Dave Rolle. A 56-yard heave from Tom O'Connell to Elbert Dubenion put the Bills back in front before Pyeatt pilfered an errant O'Connell pass for the clincher.

Veteran quarterback George Blanda personally put the Oilers into first place in the east, setting up three touchdowns with his passes and scoring them on 1-yard plunges while adding a field goal and five conversions for 26 points. He was ably supported by a running attack led by Billy Cannon that overcame four TD strikes by Los Angeles' Jack Kemp.

Chuck Shonta, Boston defensive specialist, scooped up a loose ball that eluded a New York punter and scampered 25 yards for the winning score as time ran out. Al Dorow had passed the Titans into the lead with TD flips of 8, 16 and 38 yards and it stood up until the fatal kick play began with only 12 seconds left.

Oscar Robertson Signs 3-Year Pact

Cincinnati —(AP)— All-America Oscar Robertson Sunday signed a 3-year agreement with the pro basketball Cincinnati Royals, ending vague reports he was considering other offers.

Robertson, three times a major college scoring record leader for the University of Cincinnati, was the No 1 target of the Royals after the team's two disappointing past seasons. He's expected to perk up team play and attendance.

Robertson, fresh from Olympic competition, declined to say how much pay he'll get, but reports indicated the contract includes an incentive clause based on attendance.

Court Order Halts Work on Legion Project

Neighbors in Kaukauna Object To New Building

A Circuit Court order to stop construction on the American Legion Post 41 building at 800 W. Seventh St. in Kaukauna has been issued. The order to stop work is in effect until the case is tried during the October court calendar.

Neighbors asked Judge Andrew W. Parnell to halt the work on the grounds that the Legion planned to violate both the city's zoning ordinance and a restrictive clause in the property deed. The order issued is temporary, pending a hearing on it.

Property Owners

Asking the injunction are LeRoy and Villa Seifert, 505 Bel Air court; Wilber and Elaine Haass, 501 Bel Air, and Alvin and Lucille Kronforst, 609 Bel Air. They describe themselves as adjacent property owners.

They charge that a tavern operated by Margaret Gassner was in existence while the land was in the town of Buchanan, zoned for single family residential use. The tavern was a non-conforming use, permissible under zoning ordinances, when the area was annexed by Kaukauna July 10 last year, the trio stated.

In June of 1959, the tavern ceased operations and part of the land was sold in August of that year, the property owners said.

When the land was sold, the complaint indicates, a clause in the deed referring to the entire parcel stated that the land was never to be used for a tavern or public business place. Mrs. Gassner died July 18, 1960, and the tavern had never been reopened.

The 115-foot deep strip left after part of the property was sold to Kronforst is the section along W. Seventh street. The Legion, the complaint indicates, applied for a building permit for a 40- by 100-foot addition to the building on the site, but was denied because it was for non-conforming use.

Split Vote

The liquor license was granted the Legion by a split committee and council vote, and both were conditional upon meeting all city ordinance and regulations.

The Legion began work on the addition without a permit, the complaint states.

The property owners also asked the court to award them the costs of the court actions.

Dodge Polara Enters Market

Rocket-Like Tail Lights Feature Of New Model Car

A new entry in the low-medium-price car field, the 1961 Polara, will make its debut in Dodge dealers' showroom on Sept. 29.

The 122-inch wheelbase car, available in six models, has three V-8 engines ranging from 265 to 330-horsepower and uses regular grades of gasoline.

The identifying feature of the Polara styling is its rocket-like tail lights and rear fenders, which rise slightly just behind the doors, taper downward, then make a reverse sweep at the rear of the car. The tail lights are within a chrome nacelle mounted in the fender.

Concave Grille

Dominating the front of the car is a large, horizontal, concave grille. The hood and front fenders form a cowl for the grille and dual headlights project from its sides. Housings for parking lights and a recess for the license plate are integrated in the large, wrap-around bumper. In the middle of the grille is a large medallion

A textured aluminum and stainless steel rub-rail extends along the side from the rear to the front wheels.

Polara models include a 4-door sedan, 2-door and 4-door hardtops, convertible and 6-passenger and 9-passenger hardtop station wagons.

Three Engines

The standard 265-horsepower engine has a 2-barrel carburetor; the 325-horsepower engine a single 4-barrel carburetor, and the 330-horsepower engine two 4-barrel carburetors, dual exhausts, a special camshaft and valve spring dampers.

An alternator, which replaces the conventional direct current generator in the new car, can deliver up to 10 amperes of electricity while the engine is idling.

Other features include a new solenoid-shift starter, heavy-duty manual 3-speed transmission, newly designed parking brake, torsion-air suspension and integrated frame and body construction.

Lawrence's 113th Year to Include Building of Dorm

Seventeen new faces behind the lecture desk, a new dormitory rising above the ground and the largest enrollment in a decade are the salient points of the 113th year just beginning at Lawrence College this week.

New faculty members are Dan P. Cole, religion; Iver Coleman, music; Arthur F. Coxford, Jr., mathematics; W. David Foulkes, psychology; Teymoor Gedayloo, physics; John Koopman, music; Donald A. Lemke, education; David Mayer II, theater and drama; Lt. Col. Carroll M. Newstrom, air science; Leonard O. Pinsky, Philosophy; C. J. Schmidt, visiting lecturer in French from his native Belgium; William M. Schutte, English; John R. Shaw, Russian; Roger H. Trumbore biology; and Richard O. Whitcomb, German.

Part-time teachers are Jerome I. Berlin, psychology; John Landis, mathematics; Mrs. Theodore L. Rehl, music; and Mrs. Rudolph F. Voll, Music.

Dormitory Rises

Five newcomers appear in the administration: Marwin O. Wrolstad, business manager; Nancy L. Brown, assistant to the dean of women; Mrs. Frederick L. Howard, reference librarian; Tad B. Pinkerton, admissions counselor; and Anne J. Shafer, assistant in the publicity office.

Busiest corner of the campus is the Union - College intersection, where a new dormitory for 160 men is approaching second-story height. The dormitory is scheduled for occupancy next year at this time.

Most important improvement in the physical plant this summer has been the up-dating of ventilation in several lecture rooms and laboratories.

More Science Teachers

No major changes in curriculum will be undertaken this fall, but there will be five full-time people in biology for the first time this year, three in physics, and extra part-time teachers in mathematics and psychology.

Placment of seniors and alumni, heretofore conducted on a part-time basis, will occupy the entire attention of Marie Dohr, former office manager in the dean's office. New faculty committees on graduate study and on public events have been formed to fill increased needs.

Four faculty and staff members have returned to their desks after a year's leave of absence. Harold Schneider is back from 15 months of anthropological research in Africa, William Chaney has done research in ancient history in England and the continent, and Dean Alexander Cameron and Professor Maurice Cunningham in classics are back from the University of Michigan.

State Changes Charge Against Garvin Gillham

Attempted Murder Count Dropped in Shooting Trial

Waupaca—An amended indictment was read this morning as the trial of Garvin Lee Gillham, Chicago, opened in circuit court before Judge Ronald Dreschler of Milwaukee.

Gillham is charged with first degree murder in the death of Frank Heidemann, 40, Route 2, New London, on Jan. 8, and with doing great bodily harm to Mrs. Gloria Gillham, Gillham's divorced wife and an employe of Heidemann, and County Patrolman Lyle McCully.

The original indictment charged attempted murder in the wounding of Mrs. Gillham and Patrolman McCully.

Replaces Bundy

Judge Dreschler was hearing the case in place of Judge Herbert Bunde, who withdrew when Gillham filed an affidavit of prejudice.

Before the morning recess, six members of the jury panel were questioned and two jurors—a man and a woman—were chosen for the trial.

Dismissed were a man with bad hearing, a deputy sheriff and another man and a woman who said they had formed opinions about the case.

Heidemann was shot to death the evening of Jan. 8 and Mrs. Gillham and Patrolman McCully were wounded before a bullet from McCully's gun wounded Gillham.

Gillham was held at the Portage county jail awaiting trial.

Increases Reported In Some Appleton Bread, Dairy Prices

A 6-cent per half gallon increase in the cost of ice cream has been made in some brands. Prices generally have ranged from 60 to 80 cents a half gallon.

The increases do not apply to all dairies, bakeries or stores.

Rain Totals 2 Inches in Fox Cities

The Fox Cities received two inches of rain this weekend as a reminder, possibly, of last fall's wet debut.

Heavy rains had started at this time last year and didn't stop, as today's rain is expected to do. The first day of autumn also is just around the corner, starting at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The weekend tally was .35 of an inch to midnight Friday, .41 of an inch to midnight Saturday and 1.25 of an inch to midnight Sunday. Rain came after a long dry spell throughout the Fox Cities area.

A thunderstorm accompanied the rain in southwestern Wisconsin and in northern Illinois.

Prices at New Lows for 1960

Key Issues Down Fractions to More Than 2 Points

New York — (AP) — The stock market fell through the 1960 closing lows in the Dow Jones industrial average in active trading earl this afternoon.

Key stocks dropped from fractions to more than 2 points.

The Dow industrials pierced the so-called "600 level" in the first hour then plunged deeper below it in heavier turnover as the session wore on.

The ticker tap ran late as selling snowballed in the afternoon.

The so-called "triple bottom" formed around 600 in the down industrials had formed a support area on three "tests" in March, May and July when prices rebounded from it. Last week the average sank close to it again but failed to rally, moving indecisively. The action today was a vigorous penetration which, according to Wall Street theory, should cause the list to drop further and find a lower support.

Trading sentiment also was dampened by the United Nations meeting which some traders feared could have unsettling results.

Steels, autos, rails, utilities, chemicals, oils, aircrafts, electronics, rubbers and nonferrous metals joined in the broad retreat.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 9.80 to 592.38. This year's closing low was 599.10 on March 8.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 1.50 at 213.10 — remaining above the year's closing low of 207.8 also reached March 8.

Long-range government bonds continued to forge ahead, but other treasury issues and most corporate bonds were mixed.

Tipsy Driver Goes to Jail

Missouri Man Unable to Pay Fine at Waupaca

One of two men convicted of drunken driving Saturday and today, chose jail rather than pay a $150 fine. The other man has been given until 5 p.m. Wednesday to pay a $125 fine or go to jail. Another was fined $100 for drunken driving and $50 for speeding.

Walter H. Slinger, 50, St. Louis, Mo., chose 45 days in jail rather than pay a $150 fine levied by Waupaca Police Justice George Whalen Saturday.

Slinger was arrested by Waupaca police after Slinger was observed driving without lights on the wrong side of the road from Franklin to High streets, weaving back and forth and straddling the center line. Slinger said he couldn't afford the fine.

James S. Colburn, 29, of 420-A Wagoo Ave., Oshkosh, pleaded guilty of drunken driving in municipal court at Oshkosh today and was fined $125 by Judge Arnold J. Cane. Colburn was given until Wednesday to pay the fine or spend 30 days in jail.

Colburn was arrested by Oshkosh police at 2:36 a.m. today after the car he was driving hit a parking meter on N. Main Street. Colburn refused a drunkometer test.

Aynard M. Vanstrom, 25, Dunbar, was fined $100 for drunken driving and $50 for speeding when he pleaded guilty to both charges today when he appeared before Arthur J. Ales, Menasha police justice.

Vanstrom was arrested by Menasha police at 2:40 a.m. today after they saw him speeding and driving erratically on Racine street near the Menasha city limits. Police said they chased him at speeds in excess of 70 miles an hour.

Vanstrom tested .28 on the drunkometer. A test of .15 is considered evidence of intoxication. Vanstrom's driver's license will be revoked for one year.

Bootlegging Becomes Billion Dollar 'Art'

By HAL BOYLE

New York —AP— Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Bootlegging, often thought as a hillbilly art, has become a billion-dollar industry. Treasury officials estimate that nearly a fourth of all liquor consumed in this country is produced by illicit stills.

What are the odds against your having a mentally retarded child? They are 33-1.

Americans drink four times as much coffee as all the rest of the world's inhabitants. If you desire 52 gallons a year, or a barrel every 10 months, you're about average.

Pets Help Kids

Some psychologists believe homes with cats or dogs are less likely to produce juvenile delinquents. Their theory: Caring for a pet builds a sense of responsibility in children.

Our quotable notables: "I didn't believe in anger or hate or revenge," says actress Ingrid Bergman. "They are such exhausting emotions."

Who was the first president born a citizen of the U.S.A.? Martin Van Buren.

People in Nevada are more inclined to kill themselves than those of any other state. The annual suicide rate there is 2.7 per 1,00 population.

Hint to housewives: To restore the gleam to aluminum ware, rub it with a peeled apple.

Are Americans too modest? Other nations often think of us as a bumptious, overly self-confident people. But one psychologist who studied U. S. youths for 20 years concluded that three out of four young men and women "underestimate themselves and tend to sell themselves short."

Who Wants To?

Executive signs: This one on the desk of Sherman Billingsley of the Stork Club: "There's nothing wrong with the younger generation which the older generation didn't endure."

Whales can swim up to 29 miles an hour. A whale can weigh as much as 40 elephants, but its eyes are only about the size of those of a milk cow.

You now can buy life insurance up to the age of 97—if you're in good health. The annual cost at 90 for $1,000 coverage is $360 03.

The machine age: America now has more radios than people. Our population of roughly 180 million owns nearly 38 million car radios, 15 million FM sets, and 146 million other home radios.

Did the Catholic Church ever permit its priests to marry? Yes, for more than a thousand years. Present church laws banning matrimony among priests date from a ruling at the First Lateran Council in 1123 A.D.

Worst wisecrack of the week: Singer Lisa Kirk says she knows a chorine so dumb she thinks fried shrimps are drunken midgets.

It was Don Marquis who observed: "There is always a comforting thought in time of trouble—when it is not our trouble."

Marine Pilot Corp's Travelingest Warrior

Dallas, Tex. —AP— Maj. Norman E. Lueck, 38, of Chicago, probably can lay claim to being the Marine Corps Reserve's travelingest weekend warrior, but he's losing money doing it.

Lueck, a steel company employe, was transferred from Dallas to Chicago in July 1959 but he wanted to keep his membership in a Marine Reserve fighter squadron here.

So once a month, he takes a commercial airliner to Dallas to get in approximately six hours flying time in an FJ3 jet fighter. Then he takes the airliner back to Chicago.

He makes $115 a month as a reservist. The round-trip airline fare is $130.

Presto.. The Hand Is quicker than the eye—as anyone with a black eye will tell you. Little leaguers saw a demonstration of magic at their annual dinner presented by the Rev. Donald Bazinski, assistant pastor of St. John Catholic church, Menasha. His assistants are Russ Meltz, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meltz, and Philip Schuster, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Schuster.

He Wishes Burglars Would Use the Door

Memphis —AP— If James Harpole has to put up with any more burglars he hopes they find some other way to get into his grocery store.

The one who cut his way in through the roof during a rainy weekend got away with $200. But the real financial blow was that rain pouring in through the hole did an estimated $5,000 damage.

School Area Reorganized

Big Falls District Dissolved, Divided Among Three Others

Waupaca—The Big Falls grade school district was dissolved and parts of it attached to the Iola, Tigerton and Marion districts for all school purposes, it was decided after public hearings before the Waupaca, Portage and Shawano county school committees.

George Barber, Waupaca county school committee secretary, said little opposition to the reorganization was voiced. But some thought the integration wouldn't take place until 1962.

Barber said the decision becomes effective July 1, 1961.
